DIVIDEND

The Directors do not recommend any dividend on preference shares as well as on equity shares in view of the fund requirements for the expansion including upgrading of the existing facilities, during the year under review.

CHANDAN STEEL LIMITEDREVIEW OF OPERATIONS:

The Company could achieve higher sales turnover during the year under review. The Company is upgrading its product mix, which finds usage in the engineering & industrial applications. In the era of globalisation the Company has marked its presence by achieving a good performance in terms of exports in the current year and your Directors are optimistic that the benefit of the said efforts will endeavour the Company to achieve the new milestone and the same would be substantially reflected in the coming year.

DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITY STATEMENT

Pursuant to the requirement under Section 217(2AA) of The Companies Act, 1956 with respect to Directors' Responsibility Statement, your Directors hereby confirm:

1. that in the preparation of the annual accounts for the financial year ended 31st March, 2005 the applicable accounting standards have been followed along with proper explanation relating to material departures. However, special attention of the members is drawn to clauses 5(iv) (i) and 5 (iv) (ii) of the Audit report forming part of the annual accounts.
2. that the directors had selected such accounting policies and applied them consistently and made judgments and estimates that were reasonable and prudent so as to give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Company at the end of the financial year and of the profit or loss of the Company for year under review.;
3. that the directors had taken proper and sufficient care for the maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of The Companies Act, 1956 for safeguarding the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting fraud and other irregularities;
4. that the directors had prepared the accounts for the financial year ended 31st March, 2005 on a 'going concern' basis.

AUDITORS

The Statutory Auditors M/s. Shah & Taparia, Chartered Accountants, Mumbai retire at the ensuing Annual General Meeting and being eligible offers themselves for re-appointment. The Company has received a certificate pursuant to the provisions of the Section 224 (1B) of the Companies Act, 1956 regarding the eligibility for reappointment from M/s. Shah & Taparia. Your Directors recommend their re-appointment.

OBSERVATIONS OF THE AUDITORS

The Auditor has made certain observation in their report, detail explanation and clarification for the same are as follows :

1. As regards Doubtful Debts is concerned, the Company has not made any provisions for Doubtful Debts, Since the Company do not consider the same as bad debts although the same is outstanding since long time. The Management of the company is in negotiation with the concerned parties to recover the amount through settlement Process.

CHANDAN STEEL LIMITED

2. Considering the volume of business activities and quantum & nature of creditors, it is not possible for the Company to identify the status of the creditors. However the Company has initiated the process to identify the status of creditors, so as to enable disclosure as required by Part I of schedule VII of the Companies Act, 1956.
3. As regards to the observation of the auditor for provisions of gratuity and leave salary and the retirement benefit, the same is not provided because the Company do not have any defined retirement benefit scheme and hence the quantum of amount to be provided can not be ascertained and hence no provisions has been made as required in terms of the Accounting Standard 15 on "Accounting for Retirement Benefits in the financial statement of employers" issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountant of India. However on retirement of any employee, the Company makes payment for compensation for rendering of services as per seniority, as welfare measures to employees.
4. The Company has put in efforts to ensure proper compliance of the provisions relating to deposits, as a result of which, the Company has brought down the deposits within the limits as prescribed by the Act and Company is making necessary disclosure by filing required forms with the Registrar of Companies.
5. As regards to maintenance of Cost and Stock records, the Company has taken necessary steps to maintain systematic records of the material other than principal raw material and finished products, value of which is not substantial. The company is in the process of evaluating the cost structure and records related thereto of various products as required u/s 209(1)(d) of the companies Act, 1956.

EXPANSION – INTEGRATION

The outlook for the future is positive and the management is optimistic and expect good opportunities for the Iron and Steel companies. To explore the further opportunities, the Company in tune with its plans has undertaken appropriate expansion plans. Accordingly, the Company has envisaged the installation of two Rolling Mills of size 20" and 10" in addition to the existing rolling mill of size 16" and 12" so as to cater the new export emerging market.

The Company is also in the process of enhancing their product mix with the higher capacities to cater the export market. Further to economies the scale of operation the Company is in the process of identifying the cost reduction measures involved in various processes and initiate the cost reduction techniques accordingly.

The Company has installed one windmill of 1.25 MW capacity to generate 26 lacs units /per annum which would be utilised for captive consumption.

INSURANCE

The Assets of the Company have been adequately insured against the risk of fire, flood, riots, and malicious damages etc.
