MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS REPORT

Cautionary Statement

The management Discussion and Analysis Report may contain certain statements that might be considered forward looking. These statements are subject to certain risks and uncertainties. Actual results may differ materially from those expressed in the statement as important factors could influence Company's operations such as Government policies, economic development, political factors and such other factors beyond the control of the Company.

Overview

The company has suspended its operations of exporting of Rice to various African countries and importing of copper. Company is now concentrating on Vanaspati/Refined Oil business segment.

Industry Structure & Developments

Indigenous production of edible oils has not been able to keep pace with the increase in demand. Hence, India continues to depend heavily on imported oils. Accordingly, Indian Vanaspati and Edible oil business remains exposed to international market trends and Government policies regarding import.

The edible oils industry is one sector in India that may see considerable reform in the foreseeable future.

Outlook

Vanaspati and Refined Oils, being items of essential consumption, will always be in demand from household as well as institutional segments. Robust economic growth in the country augurs well for the demand of edible oil products. While consumption pattern in urban markets has shifted to refined oils, semi-urban and rural markets consume a mix of Vanaspati, raw/filtered oils and less expensive refined oils. The demand for Vanaspati and Refined Oils will continue to grow with increase in population and income levels.

Opportunities & Threats

Company is now concentrating on Vanaspati/Refined Oil business segment only. In Vanaspati industry price competition has intensified due to import of Vanaspati from some neighboring countries at zero rate of custom duty. Consumption pattern in urban markets has significantly shifted to refined oils. Edible Oil market is though competitive provides growth opportunity also.

Risks & Concern

There is stiff competition in the edible oil market with the international entrants. On a macro level business continues to be impacted by changes in Government Policy and International Oil Markets.

Human resource / Industrial relations

The Company recognizes the importance and contribution of its human resources for its growth and development and is committed to the development of its people.

The Company has cordial relations with employees and staff. There are no industrial relations problems during the year and the Company does not anticipate any material problems on this count in the current year.

The management is also committed to help the employees and workers to sharpen their skills and to improve their knowledge base for which continuous efforts are made on training and development.

The Company has established internal control systems for ensuring optimum use of resources and safeguarding the assets. The Internal Control Systems and procedure are adequate and commensurate with the size of the Company. These business control procedures ensure efficient use and protection of the resources and compliance with the policies, procedures and status.
