AUDITORS' REPORT

TO THE MEMBERS OF
ARI CONSOLIDATED INVESTMENTS LTD.

Report on the Accounts for the year ended 31st March, 2001 in compliance with Section 227(2) of the Companies Act, 1956

We have examined the attached Balance Sheet and Profit and Loss Account annexed thereto, which are in agreement with the Company's books of account.

As required by the Manufacturing and Other Companies (Auditors' Report) Order, 1988, issued by the Company Law Board in terms of provisions of Section 227(4A) of the Companies Act, 1956, in our opinion, and on the basis of such checks of the books and records as we considered appropriate, and according to the information and explanations given to us during the normal course of audit, which were necessary to the best of our knowledge and belief, we report that -

- a) The Company has maintained proper records showing full particulars including quantitative details and situation of fixed assets. These assets have been physically verified by the management at reasonable intervals and no material discrepancies were noticed on such verification.
- b) None of the fixed assets have been revalued during the year.
- c) As there was no manufacturing activity during the year and no inventory was maintained, the question of commenting on physical verification, discrepancy and valuation of inventory does not arise.
- d) The company has not accepted loan/deposits from the companies listed in the register maintained pursuant to section 301 of the Companies Act, 1956. We have been informed that there are no companies under the same management within the meaning of Section 370(1-B) of the Companies Act, 1956.
- e) The Company has not given any loans, secured or unsecured to companies, firms, or other parties listed in the register maintained under Section 301 of the Companies Act, 1956. The provision of section 370 of the Companies Act, 1956, is not applicable with effect from 31st October, 1998.
- f) The Company has not given any loans or advances to any parties.
- g) In the absence of any manufacturing or trading activity during the year, we are unable to comment on the internal control as per clause 4A(x), (xii) & (xiv) of the order.

ARI CONSOLIDATED INVESTMENTS LTD.

- h) In respect of services rendered to a company listed in the register maintained under Section 301 of the Companies Act, 1956, exceeding Rs. 50,000/- in value, as per the information and explanations given to us, the rates charged are reasonable having regard to the nature of services, which are not comparable with market rate, as the services are of specialised nature.
- i) The Company has not accepted any deposit during the year.
- j) The Company has an internal audit system commensurate with the size and nature of its business.
- k) The Central Government has not prescribed the maintenance of cost records under Section 209(1)(d) of the Companies Act, 1956 for any of the product of the Company.
- l) The Company is regular in depositing Provident Fund dues with the appropriate authorities. There are no employees covered under Employees' State Insurance Act.
- m) No personal expenses have been charged to Profit and Loss Account.
- n) As per the information and explanations given to us, the provisions of The Sick Industrial Companies (Special Provision) Act, 1985 are not applicable to the Company.

Further to the above:

- i) We have obtained all the information and the explanations which to the best of our knowledge and belief were necessary for the purposes of our audit.
- ii) In our opinion, proper books of account as required by law have been kept by the Company so far as appears from our examination of those books.
- iii) The company has during the year 1996-97 transferred to profit and loss account a sum of Rs. 99,54,997/- from revaluation reserve created in the same year. Out of the same Rs. 73,01,629/- is unrealized and, therefore, in our opinion, is not in accordance with the generally accepted accounting principles.
- iv) In our opinion, the Profit and Loss account and the Balance Sheet comply with the accounting standards referred to in sub-section (3C) of section 211 of the Companies Act, 1956.

ARI CONSOLIDATED INVESTMENTS LTD.

- v) According to the information and explanations given to us and on the basis of the written representations received from the directors and taken on record by the Board of Directors we report that, none of the Directors of the Company is disqualified as on March 31, 2001 from being appointed as a director in terms of clause (g) of sub-section (1) of section 274 of the Companies Act, 1956.

Subject to the foregoing, in our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us the said accounts read together with notes thereon, give the information required by the Companies Act, 1956, in the manner so required and give a true and fair view:

1. in the case of the Balance Sheet of the state of affairs as at 31st March, 2001 and
2. in the case of the Profit and Loss Account of the profit of the Company for the year ended on that date.
