Dear Shareholders,

The real estate sector in India is being recognized as an infrastructure service that is driving the economic growth engine of the Country. Currently about 5% of India's GDP is contributed by the housing sector. Demand for real estate is expected to grow at a compounded annual growth rate (CAGR) of 19% until 2014. Tier- I metropolitan cities are projected to account for about 40% of this. Growing requirements of space from sectors such as education, health care and tourism provide opportunities in the real estate sector.

India's GDP had downward movement consistently in the last three quarters of 2012. In 2013, this trend will prevail - though the quantum of revision will be lower. The country's economic environment will certainly improve in 2013, with a corresponding (though lagging) gain in momentum for real estate. The most tangible benefits of economic improvements on the Indian real estate space will be seen in 2013-14.

In Chennai, Old Mahabalipuram Road and GST Road are emerging as good realty destinations as there are a significant number of under construction projects by good developers. In 2011, Chennai has witnessed the maximum supply and the city has witnessed an average of 22-33 percent unsold stock in last four years. Although, the market faced 36 percent fall in new launches.

According to a real estate research, 2012 was not a thriving year for the real estate sector and even in 2013 the real estate market is not likely to witness the graph of success. Although there is a steep rise in residential properties, the private equity sector dried up. If the land acquisition bill and the real estate regulation bill is approved, there might be a revival in the economy.

During the year under review, your Company has made an average performance in terms of Sales and Profits. In terms of operational performance, many of its projects which are large residential complexes and Township are under Joint Venture and are progressing well. Your Company will earn good profits from these projects in the year to come. Recent past your Company has launched a residential project comprising of 1,94,145 Sq ft. at Mugappair, Chennai. Another residential project is in pipeline which is located at Nandambakkam, Chennai will be launched shortly.

We at Arihant, believe in building integrity by providing qualitative service and maintaining healthy and cordial relationship with our Customers and Investors.

Your Directors wishes to place on record its sincere thanks to Bankers, Financial Institutions, Chennai Metropolitan Development Authority and Corporation of Chennai and related departments of Govt. of Tamil Nadu for having supported us on all our efforts and endeavours and all those who work for or are associated with Arihant.

Thank You

(Kamal Lunawath)
