2. GENERAL INFORMATION:

2.1 Overview of the Industry and important changes in the industry during the last year:

The company is broadly covered under the Industry sector and industrial sector is one of the main sectors that contribute to the Indian GDP. The industrial sector accounts for around 27.6% of the India GDP and it employs over 17% of the total workforce in the country. The Growth Rate of the Industrial Sector in India GDP came to around 5.2% in 2002- 2003. In this year, within the India GDP, the mining and quarrying sector contributed 4.4%, the electricity, water supply, and gas sector contributed 2.8%, and the manufacturing sector contributed around 5.7%.

2.2 External Environment and Economic Outlook:

The reasons for the increase of Industry Growth Rate in India GDP are that huge amounts of investments are being made in this sector and this has helped the industries to grow. Further the reasons for the rise of the Growth Rate of the Industrial Sector in India are that the consumption of the industrial goods has increased a great deal in the country, which in its turn has boosted the industrial sector. Also the reasons for the increase of Industry Growth Rate in India GDP are that the industrial goods are being exported in huge quantities from the country. Industry Growth Rate in India GDP thus has been registering steady growth over the past few years. This has given a major boost to the Indian economy. The government of India thus must continue to make efforts to boost the industrial sector in the country. For this will in turn help to grow the country's economy.
