2. DIVIDEND

Due to absence of profits, the Directors do not recommend any dividend for the year.

3. MARKET SCENARIO

You are aware the country is going through unprecedented downturn in all sectors of economy including financial services sector. Initial public offering have dried up which could be observed from the fact that only 2 public issues to the tune of Rs.6 crores could be collected from public during first half of 2001 as against Rs. 1890 crores in the same period of the corresponding previous year.

You will be glad to know that Rs. 6 crores collected from 2 public issues from public by your company by lead managing the issues. The stock markets have also continuously coming down in view of the market scam.

The Financial services sector is confirming to reel under the effects of global recession.

Our Company is now focused on fee based income from consultancy services as Merchant Banking activity has almost come to a standstill. Ever so, our Company remains the most active Category - I Merchant Banker for low and mid - cap companies.

As corporate debt restructuring and asset recovery have become the focus areas for Banks and Financial Institutions. Our Company has decided to focus on the area of Mergers & Acquisitions.

In light of the aforesaid background, your company has done satisfactorily to survive. With the number of players coming down, we expect the future bright, once economy is set up.

4. DEPOSITS

Your Company did not accept/hold any deposits from public/shareholders during the year under review.

5. DIRECTORS

During the year under review Shri Navin C. Shah, Shri P.B. Bharadwaj and Shri C. M Shah resigned as Directors of the Company. The Board of Directors appointed Shri Mohan Rao Datari as additional Director of the Company.

The Share holders are requested to re-appoint him as Director of the Company.

Shri Virender Ganda, Director of the Company retires by rotations but offers himself for re-appointment. The Share holders are requested to re-appoint him as Director of the Company.
