Eighteen Crores Eighty Lacs) divided into 1,63,00,000 Equity Share of Rs.10/- each fully paid up and 25,00,000 25% Non Cumulative Preference shares of Rs. 10/- each fully paid up.

"At Extra Ordinary General Meeting (EGM) of the Company held on February 16, 2007 resolutions were passed, interalia :

- for sub-division of face value of equity shares of the Company from Rs.10/- per share to Rs. 2/- per share,
- for increasing the Authorised Capital of the Company and for consequential changes in the Memorandum and Articles of Association of the Company,

- authorizing the issue of further shares on preferential basis up to US$200 million or its rupee equivalent.

The Company had fixed March 5, 2007 as the record date for the purpose of determining the members who will be eligible to receive equity shares on sub-division. However, Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) passed an interim ex-parte order dated February 22, 2007, inter alia, against the Company. By the above said order, SEBI directed the Company that "it shall not issue any equity shares or any other instruments convertible into equity shares, in any manner, or shall not give effect to any alteration in its capital structure in any manner till further directions in this regard". As a result of the SEBI's order above mentioned, the Company could not give effect to the resolutions passed at the EGM mentioned above relating to sub-division of equity shares, increase in authorised capital of the Company and for issue of further shares on preferential basis'
