5. Value Analysis/Value Engineering (VAVE)

Your Company continues to grow its service offerings to the global leader in off highway & Construction equipment. The Company has added many new customers during the year and the future prospects of business from these and other existing customers look to be promising, because of the growth in both breadth as well as depth of services offered to them.

During the year, your Company's subsidiary, Cades Digitech Pvt. Ltd., expanded on the business relationship with one of the world's largest aircraft manufacturers based out of Europe. This relationship had been initiated in the previous year and we expect this business to show continuous growth. Cades has opened an office in Toulouse, France to build near shore engagement with the customer. Cades has also been able to enhance its existing engagement with a Germany based global leader for aircraft structures and aircraft manufacturing systems.

Further, on 8th February, 2013, Cades Digitech Pvt. Ltd. entered into a strategic partnership agreement proposing to acquire 76% stake in Studec Technologies India Pvt. Ltd., the Indian subsidiary of French engineering company Studec France, which specialises in Documentation Engineering and Publications.

Throughout the year, the engineering team has successfully delivered high quality solutions to its clients, through quick response times/shorter lead times, improved quality and better value-optimization.

Your Company offers diversified services in finite element analysis, design and detailing using various FEA & CAD/CAM software. We have been successful in delivering tangible benefits to the customer in the form of value engineering – weight reduction and design simplification. Our engineers have demonstrated their capability to translate ideas into products.

The Company has setup a subsidiary in China under the name of Axis Mechanical Engineering Design (WUXI) Co Ltd. as step to explore and pursue business opportunities in other geographies.

The Company, under clause 24(f) of the Listing Agreement had filed an application with NSE & BSE seeking their approval for the proposed Scheme of Arrangement between Axis-IT&T Limited and Axis Aerospace & Technologies Limited (and their respective shareholders) which was not approved by the respective stock exchanges and therefore, the Board of Directors ('the Board') of your Company at their meeting held on 06th of November 2012 have approved the withdrawal of Scheme of Arrangement (which was originally approved by the Board at their meeting held on 12th September, 2011)

The Board of Directors ('the Board') of the Company at their meeting held on 23rd January 2013 approved the proposed Scheme of Arrangement where Cades Digitech Private Limited (Cades) will be merged with Axis-IT&T Limited (Axis) subject to the approval of requisite majority of the shareholders' and creditors of Cades and Axis and Honb'le High Courts of Karnataka and Delhi and also necessary statutory and regulatory approvals as applicable.
