REVIEW OF OPERATION:

As informed earlier, you are aware that our Company is a Sick Company under the purview of B.I.F.R. The hearing of B.I.F.R. took place on 22.10.99 in which detailed discussions have taken place. All concerned parties have supported the efforts of the Management to revive the Company. In this Hearing, Hon.ble B.I.F.R. have approved the V.R.S. Scheme for the workers as per TLA Agreement/Industrial Court Award dated 12.2.1997 and in addition, awarded some Interest on the dues of the workers who resigned upto 5.11.1999 in view of delay in implementation of the award. The Company has started distributing the dues of the workers as per agreement from the month of October, 1999. This has resulted in a good response for V.R.S. Scheme and employees have started submitting their resignations to the Company.

The Company has submitted fully tied up D.R.S. to B.I.F.R. and the Hearing took place on 2.5.2000 in which the VRS Scheme as approved earlier have been confirmed with little modification. These payments are to be made from the funds generated out of sales of surplus assets of the Company.

Honourable B.I.F.R. have approved the proposal of the sale of assets of the Company i.e. Surplus Plant and Machineries, Shops and the Land by Assets Sales Committee and appointed Shri A.K. Ghosh as a Special Director on the Board of the Company. Funds generated by Assets Sales are to be appropriated as per the direction of Hon.ble B.I.F.R. Because of positive developments as stated above and support of all concerned parties i.e. State Bank of India, Government of Gujarat, AEC, TLA and employees of the Company, we are confident of reviving the Company by clearing most of the liabilities of the Company and resume the operations of Spinning Unit in the middle of the year 2001 with upgradation / renovation of Plant and Machinery of the Company. The management of the Company is confident of turning around the Company within 2/3 years and will make their all sincere efforts for the same. This will be a good sign for the future of the Company and serve the interest of the Shareholders of the Company.
