DIVIDEND

In view of the loss, your directors regret their inability to recommend any Dividend for the year under review.

PERFORMANCE

During the year under review, your company has achieved a net income of Rs. 35.78 Crores (previous year Rs. 180.21 Crores). The Sales in the Current financial year i.e. 2012-13 of the Company have been adversely affected due to discontinuation of Shipments of Canned Mushrooms to US. The said discontinuation is due to non conformity with USFDA norms. In the wake of said norms of USFDA, the Company has recalled the shipped containers back to India. The said development has resulted into huge losses coupled with reduced level of production.

The company has started selling fresh mushrooms in the domestic market and other export market. The response from these markets is encouraging.

CHENNAI PLANT

The final commissioning of the Chennai unit is delayed due to financial crunch being faced by the Company.

AUDITORS

M/s Suresh Mittal & Associates, Chartered Accountants, retires as Statutory Auditors at the ensuing Annual General Meeting and they have expressed unwillingness for re-appointment as Statutory Auditors.

The Board has considered the appointment of M/s Rakesh Singla & Associates, Chartered Accountants, as Statutory Auditors of the Company.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSIONS & ANALYSIS REPORT

The principal business of the Agro Dutch Industries Limited is growing of White Button Mushrooms.

a) Business Environment

The global economy continues to be sluggish with a moderation in growth in China adding to the continuation of the crisis in the European Union and the United States being unable to show clear signs of economic recovery. Within the domestic economy, growth slowed much more than anticipated, with the GDP growth for fiscal year 2012-13 being pegged at 5.0%, the lowest in a decade. Your Company's performance for the year 2012-13 has to be viewed in the context of the aforesaid economic and market environment.

b) Industry Structure and Outlook

There is economic slowdown and recession alongwith fall in economic growth and increasing Current Account Deficit (CAD). The Indian Food Processing industry is viewed as growing industry, supported with new technologies being used in cultivation of various agro produce. Demand for processed and alternate food is growing due to rapid urbanization, increasing income levels and life style swing. The Mushroom industry has a bright future due to acceptability of the same.

c) Opportunities and Threats

The food processing industry in India is witnessing rapid growth. In addition to the expansion of demand, changes happening on the supply side with the growth in organized retail, increasing FDI in food processing and introduction of new products. The opportunities of expansion in the food processing industry are vast. However, there is need to improve technology and productivity to be competitive globally. As the economy grows, the food processing industry will offer bigger opportunities to the new as well as the existing players. In the current recovering economy, our business is challenged by regulatory policy changes, raw material pricing, power tariff cost, weather changes, changing consumer demand, impact of currency fluctuations and competition from domestic and international front.

d) Segment Review and Analysis

Segment has been identified in line with the Accounting Standard on Segment Reporting (AS-17) taking into account the organization structure as well as the differential risks and returns of these segments.

e) Outlook

The Company is exploring new markets including domestic market. The Company is looking for new innovative ways to increase its sales and market share. Negotiations are in progress with new customers in Europe/US which will improve the company's sales in the coming years.

f) Risks and concerns

Every business faces risks involved in its operations, namely, external & internal risks. External risks affect the working of the Company and includes Market Competition, Government policies, political and economic changes in importing country etc. all these risks are out of the preview of the Company and cannot be mitigated. On the other hand, Internal risks include increase in price of Raw material, high risk from diseases, contamination, fall in standard of production and quality of produce. Company ensures that these risks are duly managed and well addressed.

g) Internal Control Systems and their adequacy

The Company has adequate system of internal controls to ensure that all activities are monitored and controlled as well as transactions are authorized, recorded and reported correctly. The internal controls are supplemented by periodic audits. We have a qualified and independent Audit Committee which comprises Independent Directors. The Audit Committee reviews the adequacy and efficiency of internal controls and recommends any improvements or corrections.

h) Human Resource Development/Industrial Relations

The Company continues to believe that their employees are key contributors to the company's success. The Group's Endeavour to impart the best training, working environment for retaining the best talents in the industry. Industrial relations continue to be cordial and harmonious.

i) Cautionary Statement

Statements in this Report, particularly those which relate to Management Discussion and Analysis, describing the Company's objectives, projections, estimates and expectations, may constitute 'forward looking statements' within the meaning of applicable laws and regulations and actual results might differ materially from those either expressed or implied.

REPORT ON CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

COMPANY'S PHILOSOPHY ON CODE OF CORPORATE GOVERNANCE
