DIVIDEND :

In view of the Accumulated losses, your directors do not recommend any dividend for the accounting year under review.

FUTURE PROSPECTS :

Your Company has been earning cash profit since last 4 years. This has been possible since Company has started exploring business opportunities abroad. The Company is fully geared up to meet the demand in the BPO section mainly into non-voice area. The Company is targeting Medical Billing, Financial Accounting & related international projects. The Company is ready to commit resources only on agreement for business on long-term basis, with an assured return. The Company has not been able to secure business in Registrar activities due to the competition & monopolistic environment prevailing in the industry. However, we have stepped up our efforts with various merchant bankers and are expecting the business to grow. We hope that our Company will have good growth prospects in coming 2 to 3 years since lot of projects are being outsourced to India and India itself is growing in all aspects of business cycle.

CONSERVATION OF ENERGY, TECHNOLOGY ABSORPTION:

During the year under review, the company's activities are in nature of service industry. Therefore the particulars of conservation of energy and technology absorption are not applicable.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE EARNING AND OUTGO:

During the year under review, the company's foreign earnings were Rs. NIL actual realized (Previous Year Rs. 1,06,250/-) and outgo were Nil (Previous Year Nil).

DEPOSITS :

During the year under review the company has not accepted any Fixed Deposits.

REPORT OF THE AUDITORS TO THE SHAREHOLDERS

1. We have audited the attached Balance Sheet of CHOKSH INFOTECH LIMITED, as at 31st March 2007 and also the Profit and Loss Account of the Company for the year ended on that date, annexed thereto. These financial statements are the responsibility of the management of the Company. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.
2. We have conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in India. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by the management as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.
3. In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the Balance Sheet and Profit and Loss Account together with the notes thereon and attached thereto, give in the prescribed manner, the information required by the Companies Act, 1956 and also gives respectively, subject to paragraphs 3.1 and 3.2 below along with the related notes to the financial statements referred to therein, the impact whereof on the assets, loss for the year reserves and surplus is not ascertainable a true and fair view, in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India of the state of the Company's affairs as at March 31, 2007 and the profit for the year ended on that date and the cash flows for the year ended on that date.
 - 3.1 Note No. 3 regarding reversal of Service tax payable upto 31st March, 2006.
 - 3.2 Note No. 9 regarding non-provision in the accounts for liability towards gratuity.
4. We have obtained all the information and explanation, which, to the best of our knowledge and belief were necessary for the purpose of our audit. In our opinion, proper books of account as required by law have been kept by the company so far as appears from our examination of those books and the above mentioned Balance Sheet and Profit and Loss Account and Cash Flow Statement are in agreement therewith.
5. In our opinion, these financial statements have been prepared in compliance with the applicable accounting standards referred to in section 211(3C) of the Companies Act, 1956.

6. On the basis of written representations received from the Directors of the Company as on March 31, 2007 and taken on record by the Board of Directors of the Company, none of the directors of the Company is disqualified as on March 31, 2007 from being appointed as a director in terms clause (g) of sub-section (1) of Section 274 of the Companies Act, 1956.
7. As required by the Companies (Auditor's Report) Order, 2003 issued by the Central Government of India in terms of section 227(4A) of the Companies Act, 1956 and on the basis of such checks as we considered appropriate and according to the information and explanations given to us, we further report that:
- i.
 - a. The Company has maintained proper records showing full particulars including quantitative details and situation of its fixed assets.
 - b. The management has at the year-end physically verified all the fixed assets and in our opinion, the frequency of verification of fixed assets is at reasonable intervals having regard to the size of the Company and the nature of its assets. No material discrepancies have been noticed on such verification.
 - c. No substantial part of the fixed assets have been disposed off by the Company during the year.
 - ii.
 - a. In our opinion, the management at reasonable intervals has physically verified the inventory of the Company.
 - b. In our opinion and according to the information and explanations given to us, the procedures for physical verification of inventories followed by the management are reasonable and adequate in relation to the size of the Company and nature of its business.
 - c. In our opinion and according to the information and explanations given to us, the Company has maintained proper records of its inventory and discrepancies noticed on such physical verification between stock and book records were not material.
 - iii. The Company has not taken any loans, secured or unsecured, from companies, firms or other parties covered in the register maintained under section 301 of the Companies Act, 1956 save and except an amount of Rs. 7,67,974/- by way of temporary advance repayable on demand from a director of the Company which is interest free.
 - iv. In our opinion and according to the information and explanations given to us, there are adequate internal control procedures commensurate with the size of the Company and the nature of its business for the purchase of fixed assets and inventories and for the sale of shares. During the course of our audit, we have not observed any continuing failure to correct major weaknesses in internal controls.
