Reference to BIFR

The Company was declared as a sick Industrial Company under the Sick Industrial Companies (Special provisions) Act, 1985, by the Hon'ble Board for Industrial and Financial Reconstruction. The Company submitted its rehabilitation package for its revival to Industrial Development Bank of India (IDBI), the Operating Agency appointed by the Hon'ble Board for Industrial and Financial Reconstruction. The said scheme prepared by IDBI was approved by the Hon'ble BIFR in June 2001, which provided amongst others, payment to secured creditors on one time settlement basis.

In terms of said scheme, the Company has paid the complete amount to the secured creditors and also increased the paid up capital by way of allotment on preferential basis of 30,00,000 equity shares of Rs.10/

- each at par to the promoters of the company.

The Company has accordingly written back in its books of account for the year ended March 31, 2001, the excess amount payable to the secured creditors. The financial results of the company in respect of the year ended March 31, 2001 were published on the basis of the unaudited accounts and in the absence of an approved Rehabilitation Scheme, did not reflect the accounting effect of one time settlement agreed by the secured creditors.

The effect of the said approved Scheme has since been considered in audited accounts for the year ended March 31, 2001, approved by the Board of Directors of the Company on July 31, 2001.

Conservation of Energy, Technology Absorption and Foreign Exchange Earnings and Outgo.

Anant Raj Industries Ltd.AUDITORS' REPORT

To the members of
Anant Raj Industries Limited

We have audited the attached Balance Sheet of Anant Raj Industries Limited as at March 31, 2001 and the annexed Profit and Loss Account for the year ended on that date, and report that:

We have obtained all the information and explanation which, to the best of our knowledge and belief, were necessary for purposes of our audit. In our opinion, proper books of account have been maintained as required by law so far as appears from our examination of those books and the above mentioned accounts are in agreement therewith.

In our opinion, the Profit & Loss account and the Balance Sheet comply with the Accounting Standards referred to in sub section (3C) of section 211 of the Companies Act, 1956.

On the basis of written representations received from the Directors as on 31st March, 2001, and taken on record by the Board of Directors, we report that none of the Directors is disqualified as on 31st March, 2001, from being appointed as a director in terms of clause (g) of sub-section (1) of section 274 of the Companies Act, 1956.

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the balance sheet and profit and loss account, read together with the notes thereon give the information required by the Companies Act, 1956 in the manner so required and also gives a true and fair view of the state of the Company's affairs as at March 31, 2001 and the Loss incurred by the Company during the year ended on that date.

As required by the Manufacturing and other Companies (Auditors Report) orders 1988, dated 7th September 1988 issued by the Central Government and on the basis of such checks as we considered appropriate and according to the information and explanations given to us, we further report that:

The company has maintained proper records showing full particulars including quantitative details and situation of fixed assets. The fixed assets were physically verified during the year and no material discrepancy was observed upon comparison of the same with the book records.

The fixed assets of the Company have not been revalued during the year.

The inventory of finished goods, stores, spare parts and raw materials were physically verified by the management at reasonable intervals during the year. The verification of raw materials lying in loose form like clay, was carried out based upon parameters of volume and weight.

In our opinion, the procedures for physical verification of inventories followed by the management are reasonable and adequate in relation to the size of the company and nature of its business.

The discrepancies between inventories of physical stocks and books records were not material and have been properly dealt with in books of account.

In our opinion, the valuation of inventories is fair and proper, in accordance with the normally accepted accounting principles and is on the same basis as in the preceding year.

The company has not taken/granted any interest free loans secured or unsecured from/to Companies, firms or other parties listed in the register maintained under section 301 of the Companies Act, 1956, and/or companies under the same management as defined under section 370 (1-B) of Companies Act, 1956.

Interest free loans or advances in the nature of loans have been given by the Company to
