AUDITORS' REPORT

TO THE MEMBERS OF ARVIND FASHIONS LIMITED

We have audited the attached Balance Sheet of Arvind Fashions Limited, as at 31 March, 2003, and also the Profit and Loss Account and the Cash Flow Statement for the year ended on that date annexed thereto. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the auditing standards generally accepted in India. Those Standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

As required by the Manufacturing and Other Companies (Auditor's Report) Order, 1988 issued by the Company Law Board in terms of sub-section (4A) of section 227 of the Companies Act, 1956, we enclose in the Annexure a statement on the matters specified in paragraphs 4 and 5 of the said Order.

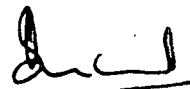

Further to our comments in the Annexure referred to above, we report that:

- (i) We have obtained all the information and explanations, which to the best of our knowledge and belief were necessary for the purposes of our audit;
- (ii) In our opinion, proper books of account as required by law have been kept by the company, so far as it appears from our examination of the books;
- (iii) The Balance Sheet, Profit and Loss Account and the Cash Flow Statement dealt with by this report are in agreement with the books of account;

Deloitte
Haskins
& Sells

- (iv) In our opinion, Balance Sheet, Profit and Loss Account and the Cash Flow Statement dealt with by this report comply with the Accounting Standards referred to in sub-section (3C) of Section 211 of the Companies Act, 1956;
- (v) On the basis of written representations received from the directors, as on 31 March, 2003, and taken on record by the Board of Directors, we report that none of the directors is disqualified as on 31 March, 2003 from being appointed as a director in terms of clause (g) of sub-section (1) of Section 274 of the Companies Act, 1956;
- (vi) In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the said accounts give the information required by the Companies Act, 1956, in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India:
- (a) in the case of the Balance Sheet, of the state of affairs of the Company as at 31 March, 2003;
 - (b) in the case of the Profit and Loss Account, of the loss for the year ended on that date; and
 - (c) in the case of the Cash Flow Statement, of the cash flows for the year ended on that date.

ANNEXURE TO THE AUDITORS' REPORT

(Referred to in our report of even date on the Accounts for the year ended 31 March 2003, of Arvind Fashions Limited.)

1. The Company has maintained proper records showing full particulars including quantitative details and location of fixed assets. The fixed assets of the Company have been physically verified by the Management in accordance with a programme of verification, the frequency whereof is reasonable.
2. None of the fixed assets have been revalued during the year.
3. As explained to us, the stocks of raw materials and components, work in progress, finished goods, traded items and stores and spare parts, including items with third parties, have been physically verified during the year by the management. In our opinion, the frequency of verification is reasonable.
4. According to the information and explanations given to us, in our opinion, the procedures of physical verification of stocks followed by the Management are reasonable and adequate in relation to the size of the Company and the nature of its business.
5. The discrepancies noticed on verification between the physical stocks and the book records were not material having regard to the size of the operations of the Company.
6. In our opinion, on the basis of our examination of the stock records, the valuation of stocks is fair and proper in accordance with the normally accepted accounting principles and is on the same basis as in the preceding year.
7. In our opinion, the terms and conditions on which the Company has taken loans from companies, firms or other parties listed in the registers maintained under Section 301 of the Companies Act, 1956 or companies under the same management within the meaning of Section 370(I-B) of the Companies Act, 1956 are not prima facie prejudicial to the interests of the Company.
8. The Company has not granted any loans, secured or unsecured, to companies, firms and other parties listed in the registers maintained under Section 301 or companies under the same management within the meaning of Section 370(1B) of the Companies Act, 1956.
9. In respect of loans and advances in the nature of loans given by the Company, where stipulations have been made, parties have generally repaid the principal amount and interest as stipulated.

In cases where instalments of principal and/or interest are not received, it is the practice of the Company to review such balances and take such steps as are considered appropriate in the circumstances, having regard to the overall objectives of the Company. In our opinion, the steps taken by the Company are reasonable having regard to the nature of business of the Company.

10. In our opinion and according to the information and explanations given to us, having regard to the explanation that some of the items purchased are of a special nature and comparable alternative quotations are not available, there are adequate internal control procedures commensurate with the size of the Company and the nature of its business with regard to purchase of stores, raw material including components, plant and machinery, equipment and other assets, and for the sale of goods.
11. In our opinion and having regard to our comments in paragraph 10 above, and according to the information and explanations given to us, the transactions of purchase of goods and materials and sale of goods, material and services made in pursuance of contracts or arrangements entered in the register maintained under Section 301 of the Companies Act, 1956, and aggregating during the year to Rs. 50,000 (Rupees Fifty Thousand) or more in respect of each party have been made at prices which are reasonable having regard to prevailing market prices for such goods, materials or services, where such market prices are available with the Company or the prices at which transaction for similar services have been made with other parties.
12. As explained to us, unserviceable or damaged stores, raw materials and finished goods are determined by the Management and adequate provisions have been made in the accounts for the loss so determined.
13. The Company has not accepted any deposits from the public under Section 58A of the Companies Act, 1956.
14. According to the information and explanations given to us, in our opinion, the Company has maintained reasonable records for the sale and disposal of realisable scrap. We are informed that the Company's manufacturing process does not generate any by-product.
15. In our opinion, the Company has an adequate internal audit system commensurate with the size and nature of its business.
16. We are informed that the Central Government has not prescribed the maintenance of cost records under Section 209(1)(d) of the Companies Act, 1956, for the products of the Company.

17. According to the records of the Company, Provident Fund and Employees' State Insurance dues have generally been regularly deposited with the appropriate authorities.

Employee State Insurance dues relating to the period 2002-03 and aggregating to Rs. 50,651 that had fallen due for deposit as at the year end have been deposited subsequently on 22nd April, 2003.

18. According to the information and explanations given to us there were no undisputed amounts payable in respect of income tax, customs duty and excise duty which have remained outstanding as at 31 March, 2003 for a period of more than six months from the date they became payable.

19. According to the information and explanations given to us and the records of the Company examined by us, no personal expenses have been charged to the revenue account, other than those payable under contractual obligations or in accordance with generally accepted business practice.

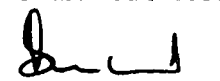

20. The Company is not a sick industrial company within the meaning of clause (o) of sub section (1) of Section 3 of the Sick Industrial Companies (Special Provisions) Act, 1985.

21. In respect of Company's service activities we report that:

- a. the Company has a reasonable system of recording receipts, issues and consumption of materials and stores and allocating materials consumed to the relative jobs.
- b. the Company has a reasonable system of authorisation at proper levels and an adequate system of internal control on issue of stores and allocation of stores and labour to jobs commensurate with the size of the Company and the nature of it's business.

22. In respect of the class of goods traded by the Company, we are informed that there are no damaged goods.
