2. Extension of accounting year

The company has extended the accounting year from December 31, 2005 to March 31, 2006 in order to align the accounting year of the company with the financial year and thus the period of this annual report is fifteen months. With this extension of accounting year the period upto which the twenty third annual general meeting of the company could be held is extended upto September 30, 2006.

3. Dividend

Your directors wish to inform you that in view of the losses suffered by your company during the period under review and carried forward losses of earlier years, they are unable to pay any dividend on preference shares and also unable to recommend any dividend on the equity shares of the company.

4. Subsidiary companies

The company has two subsidiary companies in the name of, Ashima Cottons Private Limited and Ashima Textiles Inc., USA.

In terms of the approval granted by the Central Government under section 212(8) of The Companies Act, 1956, copy of the balance sheet and profit and loss account, report of the board of directors and the auditor's report of the subsidiary companies have not been attached with the balance sheet of the company. The company will make available these documents/details, if and when requested by the members of the company. It may however be noted that in terms of accounting standard AS-21 of The Institute of Chartered Accountants of India, consolidated financial statements have been presented which includes the financials of the subsidiary companies.

5. Performance of the company

The operational performance of the company during the period improved from the last year with the operational profit showing an increase to Rs.37.14 crores (annualized) as compared to Rs. 31.30 crores last year. The increase in furnace oil prices by more than 50% has affected the company's operating profits which would have been better had it not been for this. The profitability has also been affected due to compliance with the requirements of Accounting Standard 9 issued by The Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

The soft cotton prices overall, steady performance of all divisions and improved sales realisation in shirtings division has been the highlights of the good performance. The company's constant endeavour of product improvement and differentiation saw it introduce various new products especially around August 2005, which has improved the overall performance.

The detailed discussions on the performance is highlighted in the management discussions and analysis attached to this report.

6. Awards

The company has been awarded the prestigious GOLD AWARD from Greentech Foundation, New Delhi for excellence in environment protection in textile sector for the year 2005. The company was individually certified for quality and environmental management system (QMS & EMS). Your company is the first textile company to adopt and get certified for "Integrated Quality And Environmental Management System" under a common certificate from BVQI.

7. Listing agreement

The equity shares of the company are presently listed on stock exchanges at Ahmedabad, Mumbai and National Stock Exchange.

8. Corporate governance

The report on corporate governance along with management discussion and analysis and certificate of compliance from statutory auditors forms part of this annual report.

The certificate of the statutory auditors of the company certifying compliance of conditions of the corporate governance as per clause 49 of the listing agreement is annexed with the report of corporate governance & management discussion & analysis.

9. Director's responsibility statement

Pursuant to requirements of section 217(2AA) of the Companies Act, 1956 and on the basis of information placed before them the directors confirm that:

- (i) In the preparation of the annual accounts for financial year 2005-2006, the applicable accounting standards have been followed along with proper explanation relating to material departures if any.
- (ii) They have selected appropriate accounting policies and have applied them consistently, and made judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent so as to give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company as at March 31, 2006 and of the loss of the company for the said period.
- (iii) They have taken proper and sufficient care to the best of their knowledge for the maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act, 1956 for safeguarding the assets of the company and for preventing and detecting fraud and other
