MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

ANNEXURE—A

(a) Industry Structure and Development :

The overall growth of the Indian Economy and higher industrial growth augur well for the future. The industrial climate is also positive for an enhanced role in the global economy. In this scenario, market for the Company's products have improved substantially and this development is expected to continue in the future. The Company's Operation remained suspended due to absence of any working Capital facility and possession of Assets taken over by ARCIL.

(b) Outlook :

Organic chemical Industry in India continues to face competition within it self from petro-route vis-à-vis the alcohol route. Again the pricing of petro-route had direct relation with the movements in crude prices internationally whereas the pricing of alcohol route had effects of government policies of using alcohol in automobile fuel, molasses controls and so on.

(c) Segment-wise Performance :

The Company has one segment of Organic Chemicals. During the year the Company was out of activity. The Company faced myriads of problems including paucity of Working Capital, which had cumulative effects making it more difficult for the Company to restart activities in any of its plants.

(d) Opportunities, Threats, Risks and concerns :

The Organic Chemical Industry in India look forward with optimism on account of tremendous potential of using Alcohol in automobile fuel/ petrol. When implemented fully, this will give tremendous boost to the overall demand in this sector. The uncertainties faced by the Indian economy through movements in crude prices in international market as well as changes in government policies with respect to controls on molasses prices

& movements represent threats and risks to be reckoned in the Industry. The Company being a part of the Industry is affected by these threats, risks and uncertainties.

(e) Financial Performance :

During the year, the plants of the Company remained out of operations for the reason narrated above. As a result, the Company continued to suffer heavy losses. Since year 2000- 2001. Financial performance has been disclosed in brief in the Directors' report.

(f) Internal Control Systems and Adequacy :

As stated above, during most part of the years the plants of the Company remained out of operations The Internal Control Systems, which were very effective earlier when the plants were working, were no longer essential. However, whatever transactions that took place were closely monitored with proper checks and controls.

(g) Human Relations :

There has been cordial relations in the Company during the period.

(h) Cautionary Statement :

Statements in the Management Discussion and Analysis describing the Company's objectives, projections, estimates, expectation may be 'forward - looking statements' within the meaning of applicable securities laws and regulations. Actual results could differ materially from those expressed or implied.

Important factors that could make a difference to the Company's operations include financial position of the company, economic conditions affecting demand / supply, price conditions in the domestic and overseas markets in which the Company operates, changes in Government regulations, tax laws and other statutes.
