MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION & ANALYSIS REPORT

1. The Overall Review :

The Company's revenue streams were from Money Changing, Western Union Money Transfer and Arbitrage activities. The Company during the year commenced the business of Portfolio Management Services.

The Company reviewed its overall business strategy. The Company discontinued the businesses of Money Changing, Western Union Money Transfer and Arbitrage activities and all the branches were closed down. The Company commenced Portfolio Management services pursuant to SEBI (Portfolio Managers) Regulations, 1993. The business of Portfolio Management services was commenced during the last quarter of the year and therefore, no major revenues were earned.

2. Operations Review and Segment wise performance :

Revenues for the year ended 31st March, 2005 decreased to Rs.289.91 lacs as compared to Rs.405.80 lacs in the previous year. Operating profit before depreciation improved to Rs.183.35 lacs as compared to Rs.74.58 lacs in the previous year. The Company has fully repaid the bank loans and is now virtually a debt-free company. The segment wise performance is given in notes to account. At the year end there was only one reportable segment i.e. Portfolio Management Services.

3. Opportunities and Threats:

Due to adverse risk return profile, your company decided to exit from Money Changing and Western Union Money Transfer Services. Arbitrage business was also discontinued due to inherent volatile nature of financial markets. In the recent times the Indian Capital Market is witnessing a bullish trend mainly due to encouraging corporate performance coupled with sustained investments by Foreign Institutional Investors. General buoyancy in the economy and increased level of activity in the Capital Market has revived the investors' sentiment which augurs good for your Company's business in Portfolio Management Services. However, the opportunities depend on transaction costs, technology, skill levels and general competition. This activity is also heavily influenced by regulations in the capital markets.

4. Outlook:

This has been dealt with in the Directors' Report.

5. Internal Control:

The Company has adequate system of internal controls to see that the assets are safeguarded and are productive. Proper authorization and controls are in place to ensure that the transactions are adequately authorized and reported correctly. The Company engaged the services of professional firm for the audit to ensure the working of internal control and systems. The audit committee reviewed in the internal control from time to time.

6. Human Resources :

Relations with the staff members were cordial during the year.

Cautionary Statement:

Statement in the Management Discussion and Analysis report describing the Company's position and expectations may be forward looking statements. Actual results could differ materially from those expressed or implied. Important factors that could make a difference to the Company's operations include, among others, economic conditions, changes in government regulations, tax, laws and other incidental factors.
