Management Discussion and Analysis Report

- Industry structure and developments.

The Company manufactures Methanol and Formaldehyde. The profitability of the company is largely affected by the international price of Methanol, which has direct impact on domestic Methanol prices. During the financial year the international market for Methanol was steady and varied between USD 325 to USD 232. The prices are showing a downward trend since May, 2005 towards realistic level. The Methanol price at the time of this report stands at USD 212.

- Opportunities and threats

The Company has modernized the reformer in its methanol plant during 2001-02. Natural gas pressure has also been improved with the installation of new gas pipeline by AGCL in May, 2004. Debottlenecking of the methanol plant was completed in November/December, 2004 because of which capacity utilization is expected to be better. The company has taken advance measures for marketing the additional production and has been able to sell all that is produced.

Crashing of methanol prices in international markets and global recession are the two major threats to the company. The formaldehyde market is shrinking gradually and shifting to far off places due to environmental restrictions in North-east and east. Other two manufacturers of Formalin are located very close to customers in north and south Bengal. The Government of India has withdrawn the Northeast subsidy on NG from 1st April, 2003. If linking of natural gas price to international oil prices comes into force, it would spell doom for Natural Gas based industries and Methanol manufacturers in particular.

- Segment wise or product wise performance

(A) METHANOL :

In the financial year 2004-05, the company was able to achieve only 90% capacity utilization of Methanol plant against 91% in the previous year. The capacity utilization subsequent to modernization has gradually improved. However during the year it was less on account of shutdown of plant for one month for annual maintenance, catalysts change, statutory boiler inspection and de-bottlenecking work.

(B) FORMALDEHYDE :

Performance in formaldehyde production, improved to 81% capacity utilization from 75% in the previous year.

- Outlook

With improved capacity utilization, the Company has been able to maintain its market share in North India for Methanol. Stable marketing policies and quick rational decisions helped in maintaining sales and low inventory of finished products. Further, programme to install captive power to ensure uninterrupted power to the production units and additional capacity of Methanol are in process.

- Risks and concerns

The shifting of markets is exerting a big burden on the margins of the Company. The Company has no option but to sell in North Indian markets for maximum utilization of its installed capacity. There is stiff competition in the North and the Company has to match the price of competitors (who are close-by) by bearing the huge cost of transportation.

However, despite several steps taken to reduce the cost of production and to be globally competitive the Company is prone to the Government policies. The management is pursuing with the Government to be more rational for the North East Industry. The transport subsidy on Formalin sale has been discontinued from 1st Oct. 2004.

- Internal control systems and their adequacy

The Company has an adequate internal control system and is strengthening its internal audit.

- Discussion on financial performance with respect to operational performance

The financial and operational performance has been covered in the first part of the Directors' Report.

- Material developments in human resources/IR front, including number of people employed.

The company has a huge manpower against its limited turnover. The Company is preparing the blue print for proper utilization of manpower by extending the operations of the Company. VRS is also on in the Company. The Company is operating for 32 years and the senior management personnel are due for superannuation. The Company has inducted some young professionals to meet the future needs of the Company. □

The year under review was the twenty-eighth year of commercial production. The operational highlights during the year 2004-2005 with comparative position in the previous year 2003-04 were as follows :

PLANT	PRODUCTION (M.T.)
	2003-2004	2004-2005

Capacity utilization of Methanol Unit II declined by 1% of installed capacity as compared to the previous year. Formalin was manufactured as per market demand. The plant load was improved by 6% as compared to previous year.
