- i) Compliance of all formalities laid down under Companies Act and Listing Obligations without any default.
- j) Ensuring proper Security arrangement for safe - guarding the assets and regular inspection by WTD (also a qualified engineer) of Assets to take measure against possible deterioration in their operability.

True that control matrix's could not be developed to plug every loopholes which is attributed to dismal financial standing of the company including restriction on usability of available fund as well imposed by authorities.

- k) Gearing up financial control through cost curtailment measure.

23 Self evolution of Board including it's Committee and Individual members section (134 (3) (P) of Companies Act,2013),

Being under prolonged closure, time is not ripe to assess performance of overall Board or any Committee of Board or any individual member of Board except for effort of management to overcome present impasse arising due to pending decision from BIFR, the progress of proceedings at the end of directorate being observed miserably slow and finally w.e.f 01/12/2016 SICA has been repealed and Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016 has been introduced . As per new enactment a company in respect of which such appeal or reference or enquiry stand abated may make reference to Company Law Tribunal under the insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016 has been introduced. As per new enactment a company in respect of which such appeal or reference or inquiry stand abated may make reference to Company Law Tribunal under the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016 within one hundred and eighty days from the commencement of the Code in accordance with the provision of the Code i.e. default in payments of financial debt or operation debt. As your Company has no financial debt or undisputed operational debt , as such not covered under the Code.

The evolution exercise had been predominantly restricted to adherences' of statutory compliances'.

- a) Board sat and took up issues in due cognizance of statutory requirement and other utilitarian considerations without default or negligence.
- b) Each committee of the Board performed duties entrusted to each by Board , listing obligations and Companies Act,2013 and no deficiencies in prima facie noticeable in their functioning.
- c) Each of Independent members of the Board did their best to assist Board in performance of it's duties and responsibilities according to exigency of situation – legal and practical.

Each Whole Time Director did their best to perform responsibilities conferred on them in executive capacity as well as member of the Board.

24. Risk Management Policy - Development & Identification of Risk that may Jeopardise Company's existence (134 (3) (N)),

- a) Statutory Liabilities in dispute as referred to in financial statement:

Legal opinions are in favour of practically absence of any Risk on account of vexatious grounds of raising of demands by the directorate. As such same do not deserve to be reckoned as genuine in risk factor as per opinion of the management.

- b) Comprehensive Business Continuity Plan ((CBCP) and Disaster Recovery Plan (DRP) :
 - i) CBCP

True that due to prolong closure , market contract has suffered to some extent . However years old track record of the Company read with absence of not many similar Unit coming up within interim period establishing the company's market in terms of it's former – self is likely to meet any serious challenge.

However foundation of such plan in comprehensive contest is awaited.

ii) DRP

Issues which may prove disasters to the destiny of Company include Govt. Policy, Technological metamorphosis, cyber risk.

Notwithstanding absence of any definite remedy plan on aforesaid risk predicaments the company is trying to save it's existing fund base adjust with new dispensation in days ahead.

However, cyber protection measure is costly a device to initiate at this point of financial standing of the Company
