Ordinary Business:

1. To consider and adopt the audited Balance Sheet as at March 31, 2005, Profit and Loss Account for the year ended on that date and Reports of the Board of Directors and Auditors thereon.
2. To appoint Directors in place of those retiring by rotation.
3. To appoint Messrs Chaturvedi & Partners, Chartered Accountant, the retiring Auditors of the Company, who will hold office from the conclusion of this Annual General Meeting until the conclusion of the next Annual General Meeting of the Company and fix their remuneration.

Special Business:

4. Revision in remuneration of Shri. Rakesh S. Bhardwaj, Managing Director.

To consider, and if thought fit, to pass, with or without modification the following resolution as an Ordinary Resolution:

"RESOLVED THAT pursuant to the provisions of Sections 198, 269, 309, 310 and Schedule XIII and other applicable provisions, if any, of the Companies Act, 1956, and in modification of the resolution passed at the 29th Annual General Meeting, effective July 1, 2004, the remuneration payable to Shri. Rakesh S. Bhardwaj, the Managing Director be revised as given below:

A. Salary:

Up to a maximum of Rs. 1,25,000/- per month [w.e.f. April 1, 2005], with authority to the Board or a Committee thereof, to fix the salary within the said maximum amount from time to time. The annual increments which will be effective 1st April each year, will be decided by the Board or a Committee thereof and will be merit based and taking into account the company's performance.

B. Incentive Remuneration:

Up to 50% of salary to be paid at the discretion of the Board annually, based on certain performance criteria.

C. Commission:

Such remuneration by way of commission, in addition to the salary, incentive remuneration, if any and perquisites and allowances payable, calculated with reference to the net profits of the Company in a particular financial year, as may be determined by the Board of Directors of the Company or a committee thereof, at the end of each financial year, subject to the overall ceilings stipulated in Sections 198 and 309 of the Companies Act, 1956. The specific amounts payable to the Managing Director will be based on certain performance criteria to be laid down by the Board or a Committee thereof and will be payable annually after the Annual Accounts have been approved by the Board of Directors and adopted by the members.

D. Perquisites & Allowances:

In addition to the salary, incentive remuneration, if any, and commission payable, the Managing Director will be entitled to perquisites and allowances like accommodation (furnished or otherwise) or house rent allowance in lieu thereof, house maintenance allowance, together with reimbursement of expenses or allowances for utilities such as gas, electricity, water, furnishings, repairs, servants' salaries, society charges and property tax, medical reimbursement, club fees and leave travel concession for himself and his family; medical/accident insurance and such other perquisites and allowances in accordance with the rules of the Companies or as may be agreed to by the Board of Directors or a Committee thereof and the Managing Director, and such perquisites and allowances will be subject to a maximum of 60% of the annual salary.

For the purposes of calculating the above ceiling, perquisites and allowances shall be evaluated as per Income-tax Rules, wherever applicable. In the absence of any such Rules, perquisites and allowances shall be evaluated at actual cost. Provision for use of the Company's car for official duties and telephone at residence (including payment for local calls and long distance official calls) shall not be included in the computation of perquisites for the purpose of calculating the said ceiling.

Company's contribution to Provident Fund and Superannuation or Annuity Fund, to the extent these either singly or together are not taxable under Income-tax Act, gratuity payable as per the rules of the Company and encashment of leave at the end of the tenure, shall not be included in the computation of limits for the remuneration or perquisites aforesaid.

E. Minimum Remuneration:

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein contained where in any financial year during the currency of the tenure of the Managing Director, the Company has no profits or its profits are inadequate, the Company will pay remuneration by way of salary, incentive remuneration, perquisites and allowances as specified above.

The terms and conditions of the said appointment may be revised, enhanced, altered and varied from time to time by the Board of Directors of the Company in such manner as may be agreed to by the Board within maximum amounts payable to Managing Director in terms of the provisions of the Companies Act, 1956 or any amendments made hereafter in this regard.

RESOLVED FURTHER THAT all the other terms and conditions of appointment of Shri. Rakesh S. Bhardwaj, as approved by the Members at the 29th Annual General Meeting held on September 29, 2003 shall remain unchanged."

5. To consider and, if thought fit, to pass with or without modification(s) the following resolution as an Ordinary Resolution:
- "RESOLVED THAT pursuant to the provisions of Section 293(1)(e) of the Companies Act, 1956 and other applicable provisions, if any, the Board of Directors of the Company be and is hereby authorised to contribute to Charitable and other funds not directly relating to the business of the Company or the welfare of its employees from time to time in any financial years to the extent of Rs.10,00,000/- or 5% of the average net profit as determined in accordance with the provision of Section 349 and 350 of the Act during the three financial years immediately preceding, whichever is greater."

Management's Discussion & Analysis Report.

2004-05 in retrospect

The Company has two Oxygen Gas plants - 50 Tons Per Day and 120 Tons Per Day at Khetrinagar (Rajasthan). These plants were installed and commissioned for supplying gas to M/s Hindustan Copper Ltd (HCL). The contract with HCL for supply of gas from 50 TPD plant was expired on August 14, 2002. The contract with HCL for supply of gas from 120 TPD plant was expired on June 30, 2004.

HCL took long maintenance shut down during this accounting year with effect from July 1, 2004 to April 22, 2005. The Company has entered into a new purchase agreement with HCL on May 5, 2005 for supply of gas and HCL has resumed consumption of gas w.e.f. April 23, 2005.

In the year 2004-05 the 120 TPD plant run only 87 days.

Other Income

Other Income includes excess interest provided in the earlier years. The Company has written off Sundry debtors amounting to Rs. 6,89,19,840/- pertaining to the dispute of 120 TPD plant.

Further, as HCL has done the overhaul maintenance work of their smelter plant, the Company is expecting uninterrupted operation and continuous consumption of gas by HCL. The Company has also done maintenance work of its both Oxygen Gas plants during the period of non-operation of its plants. In view of these factors the Company foresees a trouble free operation and bright future from now onwards.

The Company has become very aggressive in participating for various Government and Private tenders for Oxygen plants. The Company is exploring various markets and holding regular talks with the consumers of Oxygen and exploring options for growth.

The growth in the Steel sector promises a bright future for the gas industry and better prices for Oxygen Gas.

The Company has won arbitration award for Rs.2,30,83,887/- under 50 TPD contract. HCL has appealed against this award of arbitrator. The Company is hopeful of recovering the amount with interest as per the arbitral award.

The Company has cleared all the dues of the UTI.

As on date there is no term interest liability on the Company.

Adequacy of Internal Controls

The Company has a proper and adequate system of internal controls to ensure that all assets are safeguarded and protected against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are authorised, recorded and reported correctly. The internal control systems are supplemented by an extensive programme of internal audits, review by management, guidelines and procedures. The internal control systems are designed to ensure that the financial and other records are reliable for preparing the financial statements and other data and for maintaining the accountability of assets. The Company has an independent internal audit system, covering on a continuous basis, the entire gamut of operations and services spanning all locations, business and functions. The internal audit findings and recommendations are reviewed by the top management and the Audit Committee of the board.

Cautionary Statement

Statements in this management discussion and analysis describing the company's objectives, projections, estimates and expectations may be 'forward looking statements' within the meaning of applicable laws and regulations. Forward looking statements are identified in this report, by using the words 'anticipates', 'believes', 'expects', 'intends' and similar expressions in such statements.

Although we believe our expectations are based on reasonable assumptions, these forward -looking statements may be influenced by numerous risks and uncertainties that could cause actual outcomes and results to be materially different from those expressed or implied.
