MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS REPORT*Industrial Structure and development

BIBCOL is processing Oral Polio Vaccine (OPV). The requirement of OPV is expected to continue and the Company being single Central Public Sector Undertaking will maintain its position as a major supplier to the Govt. of India. Over a long period of time, the OPV will be replaced by IPV (Inactivated Polio Vaccine).

The current plan of action centers around optimizing the use of resources, sourcing bulk of approved quality at the right time and price, improving productivity, fulfilling the needs of the existing customer i.e. Ministry of Health and Family Welfare, Govt. of India, and exploring new markets to improve profitability and thereby, rewarding the shareholders at the earliest.

Segment-wise or product-wise performance

The Company operates in single product and as well as segment viz. processing and supply of Oral Polio Vaccine (OPV).

Outlook-opportunities, threats, risk and concerns

Opportunities: Growing importance of vaccine in public health, concern about increasing disease among public provide opportunities for new vaccine & biological.

Threats: Too many players, import of vaccine from unauthorized sources and reluctance of the Ministry of Health & Family Welfare to award the entire supply order to a PSU that is established for this purpose.

Risks: End of business cycle of OPV, and continuous quality standards up gradation to make present facilities and processes redundant.

Concerns: Perpetual import of vaccine, non-availability of technology and open market opportunity access.

Internal control systems and their adequacy

The Company has established systems providing adequate internal controls, commensurate with its size and nature of the business. Such systems have been appropriately documented. The Company has engaged external agencies to carry out periodic internal audits enabling continuous up-gradation to such systems required to fulfill changing business needs and new legislations.

Financial performance with respect to operation performance

The same has been discussed elaborately in the Directors Report.

Human Resources

The Company regards its human resources amongst its most valuable assets. It proactively reviews and evolves policies and process to attract and retain its substantial pool of Scientific, technical and managerial resources through a work environment that encourages initiative, provides challenges and opportunities. However, at lower levels, employees need to be updated for recent developments and quality standards through training to get better performance.
