EXPLANATORY STATEMENT PURSUANT TO SECTION
173(2) OF THE COMPANIES ACT, 1956

In view of the encouraging measures taken by the Government to liberalize the economy and in order to diversify into certain new business ventures, your Directors have always been considering new business proposals as stated in the text of the resolution No. 5.

The amendments proposed by way of additions to the Objects Clauses in the Memorandum of Association as set out in the resolution under this item are to facilitate diversification and to enable the Company to enlarge its area of operation.

Your Directors are of the view that it will be beneficial for the Company and the Shareholders. Your Directors are also of the view that the proposed additional objects may conveniently and advantageously be combined with the existing business of the Company. Accordingly, the Directors propose to amend the Objects of the Memorandum of Association of the Company.

To enable the Company to take these new lines of activities in due course as and when considered proper and appropriate by the Board of Directors, alterations in the Objects Clause of the Memorandum of Association are necessary.

Your Company proposes to commence activities pertaining to Trading and Merchandise various commodities/goods. The said business activities are covered under clause No. 45. However, before undertaking such business activities, it would be necessary to obtain approval from the Company's Members for commencing the business activities as specified earlier.

The Company, therefore, is seeking the approval and consent of the Shareholders under Section 149(2A) and other applicable provisions, if any, of the Companies Act, 1956 for commencement of new business set out in the resolution (being Clause No. 45 of Memorandum of Association)

The Board recommends the adoption of the resolution. None of the Directors of the Company is concerned or interested in the said resolution save and except as members of the Company.

The draft copy of the Memorandum of Association together with all the proposed amendments is available for inspection at the registered office of the Company on any working day during business hours.
