Explanatory Statement pursuant to section 173(2) of the Companies Act, 1956

Item No 6

The members are aware that Company was incorporated on 4th day of January 1982 with a primary focus on formulation of drugs and pharmaceuticals. Board of Directors are considered from time to time proposals for diversification into areas which would be profitable for the company as part of diversification plans which considered to be convenient, advantageous and feasible for the company's business. After completion of one time settlement with bankers Board of the directors have decided to run the idle factory situated at pithampur.. Accordingly Board of the Directors have proposed to start the manufacturing and trading of plastic products and their by products. The present main clause of the Memorandum of Association of the Company is not covering the areas properly, which may be considered in future by the Company for diversification, etc.

After taking into account the financial resources of the Company and other relevant factors, the Board considered it possible and desirable to diversify the Company's activities by undertaking the above said business which could be carried on most economically and profitably with the main objects of the Company.

The Company is authorized to undertake the proposed business under sub-clause C of clause III of Memorandum of Association. The Board is satisfied that the proposed business can be combined conveniently and advantageously with the existing business of the Company under the existing circumstances.

According to section 149(2A) of the Companies Act, 1956, no Company can commence any new business unless the Company has approved the commencement of such new business by a special resolution passed in that behalf at a general meeting.

As the commencement of the proposed business in terms of sub-clause C of clause III of the Memorandum of Association of the Company may be considered to be the commencement of a new business within the meaning of section 149 (2A) of the Act, it is necessary to obtain the approval of the members by a special resolution to such commencement of new business pursuant to the said section. The resolution is intended for this purpose.

The Companies Memorandum of Association is open for inspection at the Company's registered office during usual business hours on any working day.

Your Directors commend the resolution for your approval.

None of the Directors of your Company is in any way concerned or interested in this resolution.
