On account of certain objections being raised by one of the labour unions of the factory against the long term labour agreement which form a part of the above DRS, the BIFR was constrained to observe on 8.3.2000 that the Company had a long history of labour problems which had proved to be major impediment in the successful implementation of its revival scheme. The BIFR, accordingly, whilst granting a period of one month to the existing management to renegotiate matters with its labour force and submit their proposal, if any to the OA, also directed the OA to advertise for a change in management and report back to the BIFR thereafter. Under the circumstances, the next hearing of the BIFR is awaited wherein the BIFR would take a further decision in the matter.
