Mr. Nasser Munjee

Mr. Nasser Munjee, 60, is an eminent economist. He obtained his Masters Degree from London School of Economics, UK. He spent a short while at the University of Chicago, USA, before returning to India in 1977. He joined as the Chairman of one of India's leading development banks – ICICI, to establish the first housing finance company in India – the first retail institution serving customers directly for their housing needs. Against many odds HDFC Group, as it is known today, grew to be a financial conglomerate with assets of over $50 billion in banking, insurance, mutual funds as well as its prime business – housing finance. He rose to be an executive director on the Board, on which he continues even today, although in a non-executive capacity.
