EXPLANATORY STATEMENT - ANNEXURE TO THE NOTICE.

RESOLUTION No.5.

The Company requires further finance for expansion and it proposes to raise such capital by way of issue of equity share warrants as a preferential issue. The terms and conditions of this preferential issue shall be in accordance with S E B I Preferential Issue regulations and such other regulations and law provisions as are applicable. The warrants which are proposed to be issued, in terms of this Special resolution will be converted at par into equity shares from time to time in one or more lots within eighteen months from the date of issue of the warrants.

Requests for conversion of these warrants into equity shares shall always be accompanied by the necessary payment by cheque/demand drafts. Application without payment will be rejected.

The newly issued shares shall be also listed with the Stock Exchange, Mumbai and the necessary application therefor will be made to it.

After the allotment, certificates for the number of shares allotted will be forwarded to the respective allottees within three months from the date of allotment. The Special Resolution in this regard passed at the Extraordinary Meeting held on the 5th June, 1999 had lapsed, as the Company could not implement within the prescribed three-month period; hence the need to pass it again.

The Directors of the Company are interested to the extent of their Shareholding in the Company.

On behalf of the Board of Directors

Mumbai, 16th May, 2000.

DIVIDEND

In order to conserve funds for long term working capital and expansion, the Directors do not recommend payment of dividend.

OPERATION AND FUTURE PROSPECTS

During the year under review, your Company has been able to keep up the tempo in production to meet with the increased sales targets, inspite of the general recessionary trend prevailing in the country during the year. The Sales were higher by 13% compared to previous year. This was achieved through better marketing, and introduction of new products, however, prices were under pressure due to increased competition. Your Directors are making efforts to increase sales and barring unforeseen circumstances, your Directors are confident of achieving sales turnover of around 6 crores during the present financial year.
