Corporate Governance Report

(for the year ended 31st March, 2009)

"Corporate Governance is about working ethically and finding a balance between economic and social goals. It includes the ability to function profitably while obeying laws, rules and regulations."

1. Board's Philosophy on Corporate Governance

Effective corporate governance requires a clear understanding of the respective roles of the Board and senior management, and their relationship with others in the corporate structure; relationship of the Board and the Management with stakeholders should be characterized by candor; their relationship with employees should be characterized by fairness; their relationship with the communities in which they operate should be characterized by good citizenship; and their relationship with the government should be characterized by a commitment to compliance.

We believe that sound corporate governance is critical to enhance and retain stakeholders' trust. Accordingly, we always seek to ensure that we attain our performance rules with integrity. Board exercises its fiduciary responsibilities in the widest sense of the term.

Our corporate governance philosophy is based on the following principles:

- Satisfy the spirit of the law and not just the letter of the law. Corporate governance standards should go beyond the law.
- Be transparent and maintain a high degree of disclosure levels.
- Make a clear distinction between personal conveniences and corporate resources.
- Management is the trustee of the shareholder's capital and not the owner.

2. Board of Directors

The Board of Directors provide strategic direction and the thrust to the operations of the Company and accountable at all time to the shareholders of the Company. The Company has a professionally constituted Board of Directors.

During the year under review, the Board of Directors met nine times on 1st April 2008, 30th April, 2008, 26th May, 2008, 31st July, 2008, 25th August, 2008, 4th September, 2008, 31st October, 2008, 31st January, 2009 and 31st March, 2009.
