LETTER TO STAKEHOLDERS

Dear Stakeholders,

The Indian economy continued to be haunted by the events in India and the World over resulting in very slow growth during Financial Year 2002-03. The overall economic growth slid to 4.3% in 2002-03 from 5.6% in 2001-02. This compares very poorly with average growth rate of 6.1% between 1992-93 and 2000-01.

Information Technology Industry continued to be one of the most affected sectors among Indian Industries. Whilst the Computer Hardware market recorded a poor growth and wafer-thin margins, the Indian Software sector was affected by the global recession, resulting in negative growth and severe pricing pressure.

The above events affected most companies across the Board and Cerebra was no exception. Your Company was able to meet its top line of the previous year by recording a gross turnover of Rs.3157.93 lakhs but slipped badly in terms of bottom line by recording a loss of Rs.491.50 lakhs. Your Company's Management continues its focus in both the Hardware and Software Division. Your Company has added four big clients in the Hardware Division during the year 2002-03 with vast potential to increase its orders from these clients during the coming years. The Company has also added five clients in the Software Division in form of overseas orders from Europe. Most of these orders are pilot projects and is nearing completion with larger projects from the same clients expected to materialize during the Financial Year 2003-04.

Several initiatives were infused towards cutting costs, increasing sales, increased focus on business with higher margins, etc. These measures are expected to result in better profitability in the coming months/years.

The Indian Hardware market is expected to record a growth of 20%, as per reports available. The I.T Software market is also expected to pick up and your Company's Management is confident of much better and improved performance in the coming months/years.

I take this opportunity to thank all the Stakeholders, Banks, Channel Partners, Customers, Vendors and the Employees of Cerebra who have uniformly remained a great source of strength.

Thank you,
