DIVIDEND

Based on the results for the year, your Directors do not recommend payment of Dividend.

OPERATIONS

Due to continuity of depressed capital market conditions and recessionary economic scenario, the company could not improve its performance. During the year its gross income reduced Rs. 33.81 lacs as against Rs. 59.00 lacs in the year 1997-98. However company has reduced its operational costs and investment losses whereby net loss has reduced marginally, in spite of substantial down fall in gross income.

FUTURE OUTLOOK

The company expects the capital market to improve during the current year and expects to perform reasonably well.

The company is continuing to exploit business opportunities in other non-fund based financial services.

Y2K : All hardware system and software of the company are made Y2K compliant.

AUDITORS REPORT

The observation made by the Auditors in para 4 of their report have been duly clarified in note No.4 of part A Schedule No. 17 forming part of Accounts, which is self explanatory.

PROJECTION VS. PERFORMANCE

The financial projections for the year ended 31st March, 1999 are not indicated in the Company's Prospectus dated 5th January, 1995 and thus comparison to the actual performance for the year is not required.
