MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION & ANALYSIS

A. INDUSTRY STRUCTURE & DEVELOPMENTS

In 2005-06, the primary market sustained momentum backed by a buoyant secondary market and improved macro-economic fundamentals. During 2005-06, 138 companies accessed the market and mobilised Rs.27,295 crore compared to 60 issues which raised Rs.28,256 crore in 2004-05. While the number of issues in 2005-06 was more than double that in 2004-05, the amount mobilised, however, was less by 3.5 per cent in 2005-06.

All the IPO issues were by the private sector companies in 2005-06, except that of Gujarat State Petronet Ltd. On the other hand, the number of rights issues during 2005-06 was higher at 36 mobilising Rs. 4,126 crore compared to 26 issues which mobilised Rs. 3,616 crore in 2004-05. The highest resource mobilisation for any month in 2005-06 was in December when Rs. 8,985 crore was raised. In 2005-06, there were 8 issues from the public sector which mobilised Rs. 7,183 crore compared to 5 issues which raised Rs.11,094 crore in 2004-05.

The other striking change in the capital market is the arrival of mega issues and exit of small companies, as reflected in the increase in the average size of issues, which worked out to Rs 470 crore per issue in 2004-05 compared to Rs 11.7 crore in 1995-96. It is apparent from the data that small companies raised relatively small amounts from the market probably due to high transaction cost, high listing fees and stringent disclosure norms set by the Securities and Exchange Board of India to protect investors.

Over the previous five-year period (2000-01 to 2004-05), IPOs have begun playing a major role in resource mobilisation, especially with the entry of government companies with mega offers. An analysis of the break-up of equity between equity at par and that at premium, shows that the latter's proportion has been rising. This shows remarkable comeback of equity capital and preference of investors for risk-taking, an evidence of the high expectation among investors for safe, fair and honest capital market.

B. OPPORTUNITIES & THREATS

The share price witnessed substantial decline during the first fortnight followed by significant recovery during later part of June 2006 onwards. However, the undertone continued to remain weak. The institutional investors, mainly FIIs, were less active in the Indian markets during last few months. Large redemption pressures on the private sector mutual funds also weakened the sentiment. The Indian stock markets moved in consonance with the international markets which in turn were influenced by factors such as uncertainty in interest rates, inflationary pressures and high crude oil prices. The overall negative sentiment may affect the capital market and in turn the business of our Company. However we hope that in spite of some consolidation, the market will improve and the performance of the company will also improve accordingly.

C. SEGMENT-WISE OR PRODUCT-WISE PERFORMANCE

The Company is engaging primarily in Merchant Banking activities only and there are no separate reportable segments as per the Accounting Standard 17.

D. OUTLOOK

The Company has endeavoured to remain buoyant even in a challenging economic climate. The Company also has sought to strengthen its position by internally realigning its businesses and streamlining its operations, always with an eye to reduce cost and enhance stakeholders' value. Company's business strategy is to establish a dominant market share in the domestic market by building and strengthening client relationships, consolidating key accounts and undertaking aggressive client marketing.

E. RISKS & CONCERNS

The gradual transformation of the Indian economy presents challenges and opportunities for organizations to take the next leap forward. Company with its 12 years of experience in providing quality financial services and a dedicated and trained team is constantly evolving itself to retain its leadership position and competitive edge. Company has the vision to put itself on the domestic as well as global map in integrated catering of diversified financial services.

CHARTERED CAPITAL AND INVESTMENT LTD.
