Welcome to a Sustainable, Colorful World!

Clariant in India is committed to ensuring sustainable development of our company and planet earth, simultaneously. Caring for greener surroundings, reduction in wastes and emissions, innovating and nurturing a range of green products in our portfolio, enhancing work place safety, etc. are initiatives on which we place a premium. Our range of lead chrome free pigments, non-halogenated flame retardants, heavy metal free masterbatches for food packaging applications, the 4E's from textile dyes – environment, efficiency, ecology and economy, etc. are but a few examples of how we are nurturing a more safer yet colorful world for our children to inherit !

Clariant's Brand Values

Our three brand values "value focus", "service leadership" and "dialogue commitment" help us to achieve a unique identity and form the cornerstones of our relationship with our key stakeholders namely our customers, employees and investors.

> Value Focus

For the benefit of all stakeholders Clariant will aim for profitable, sustained growth based on a strategy linked to binding values.

> Service Leadership

With professional advisory services, an impressive talent for innovation combined with customized services and applications, Clariant helps customers to achieve their production and economic targets.

> Dialogue Commitment

An ability to engage in dialogue, integrity and trustworthy relationships set Clariant apart.

Report Junction.com

Clariant touches your lives almost everywhere. Our presence comes through in very many varied areas ranging from the "stone washed" effects on Denims, water-based paint applications to flame retardants. Our Optical Brightening Agents give your paper the highest whiteness, while our colors impart the deepest shades possible. Our chemicals also help enhance the elegance of leather for fashionable articles and accessories.

You will find us in laundry detergents, with properties that ensure less consumption while imparting requisite washing power. Our raw materials for cosmetics ensure your body care; while our floor cleaner solutions help keep your floors spic and span. Another key innovation is the safety compliant colorants for sensitive applications like children's toys. One cannot, of course, forget our high performance automotive coatings.

Our masterbatches help create innovative user-friendly packaging – be it attractive color concentrates, brightly colored stadium seats that can weather the elements, PET packaging or even packaging for medical applications. Our tailor-made oil-field chemicals ensure smooth operations from extraction to refining. We help fuel from getting clogged in filters during winters and our deicing fluids enable aircrafts take off and land in snowy conditions.

Our innovation coupled with our passion to deliver consistent quality has helped us to be close to our customers' exacting needs.

Always at your service ...

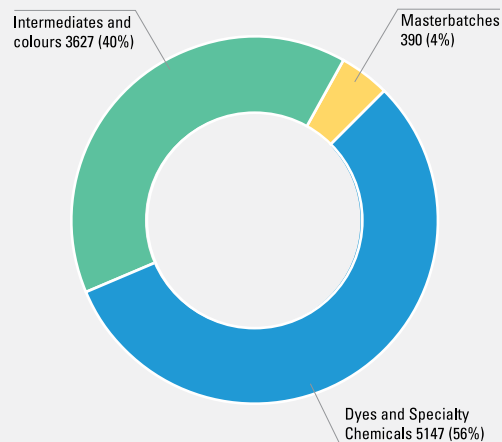

Clariant in India leads the way in being able to deliver customized solutions at a consistently high quality. We are certified for ISO-9001, ISO-14001 and ISO-18001 from International Agency SQS (The Swiss Association for Quality and Management Systems). The Product Safety Lab received the ISO 17025 accreditation by NABL, Govt. of India.

Clariant has made investments in facilities and people while offering a competitive cost structure, in order to remain closer to customers. Our new Paper Service Centre, the Pilot facility for stable fibers, the Technical Service Centre for Pigments, etc. help enhance our customer service levels. Our full-fledged Research & Development, Quality Assurance/Control functions help bring in standardised and efficient solutions. Our Product Safety Lab ensures that critical safety issues are not just compliant to all standards but also create lasting value to our customers and their end-users. Our Businesses hold regular interfaces with our various customers to understand their needs, to develop products that meet those needs and to enhance the value of offerings to their end-users. Our technical service centre network across India render tailor made services, on time, every time to satisfy the dynamic market needs.
