Item No 5

Article 29 of the Articles of Association of the Company under the head Transfer and transmission of shares reads as follows:

- (a) A share held by the President of India or his nominees may be transferred only to a person approved by the President.
- (b) Subject to Section 111 and Section 108 of the

In view of the enactment of the Depositories Act, 1996, deletion of Section 22A of the Securities Contracts (Regulation) Act, 1956 and insertion of section 111A in the Companies Act, 1956, Clause (b) of Article 29 of the Articles of Association of the Company which imposes restrictions on the transfer of shares has become repugnant to the provisions of law, hence required to be deleted. As members are aware, the business activities of the Company have increased manifold with the growth of the Company. Your Directors, therefore, recommend for approval and adoption of the present Special resolution.

As a consequence of the proposed deletion of Article 29 of the Articles of Association of the company, the right of Board of Directors of the company to refuse transfer of shares will be ceased. As a consequence, Article 36 which provides that the Board shall have the right to refuse to register a person entitled by transmission to any shares or his nominees, as if he were the transferee named in an ordinary transfer presented for registration, will become irrelevant. Now, the Board of Directors can refuse to register the transmission of shares if the evidence of the entitlement of shares is not furnished by the person concerned. None of the Directors of the Company is, in any way, concerned or interested in the said resolution.
