MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION & ANALYSIS REPORT*Industry Structure & Developments

The company is a non-banking finance company, a segment, where scope for growth always exist, but for large size companies having bigger infrastructure and deeper pockets because demand for finance would always have an upward trend. However, the small size companies shall not be able to reap such benefits because of lesser opportunities. This seems to continue, however, appropriate risk calculation and management is the key factor in designing and maintaining finance portfolio and earning profits under limited resources.

Segment-wise & Product – wise performance

The company belongs only to one segment, however, it has been deploying its resources into hire-purchase, securities trading, loans and advances. The company's management has made regular endeavours for improving operating efficiencies during the year under review and has increased its profitability.

Outlook

The company management has adopted due measures in cutting the expenditure account and marginally raising the income from operations. There has been an overall savings and cost cuts in operations. Investments of the company have also been strategically strengthened. The management of the company is also exploring the possibilities of advantageously combining the business of film distribution soon with the existing business of the company and thus, your directors are hopeful of a better financial performance in the years to come.

Risk & Concern

Profitability always gets affected on account of continuing decline in saving and interest rates and growing competition from large network finance companies and consumer service banking institutions.

Internal Control System and its adequacy

The company has adequate internal control procedures in commensuration with its size and nature of business at all desired levels.

Discussion on financial performance with respect to operational performance.

The financial performance of the company under reported circumstances have been directly related to efficiency in all areas of functional management such as marketing, human resources and finance. At present all these functional areas seem to be working in tandem and the majority of its credit goes to the deft managerial tactics and apt financial management by company's board.
