REVIEW OF BUSINESS

Wheat trading

Weak market conditions adversely affected the profitability of this business during the year.

Snack Foods

Sustained marketing efforts resulted in a substantial improvement of both sales and profitability during the year. Efforts to further increase business volume are being undertaken by strengthening the existing distribution system, expansion of markets and introduction of new products and variants. However, the continuous rise in the cost of raw materials is a matter of concern.

Based on expert legal advice, some of the products manufactured by the Company were reclassified under the Central Excise Tariff Act, such that with effect from 1st December, 2007, they attract nil rate of duty. Consequently no excise duty is being paid since then. The department has rejected the re-classification. An appeal has been filed which is pending adjudication.

Further, based on legal opinion, the company has stopped paying mandi fees on purchases of agricultural produce from outside Uttar Pradesh and used in the manufacture of our products. The payment was stopped with effect from January, 2007 and our representation in the matter is pending adjudication by the Mandi Samiti, Ghaziabad.
