3. BUSINESS REVIEW & FUTURE PROSPECTS

Principal business of the company remains temporarily suspended due to unavailability of sufficient resources. Company shall restart its business immediately upon generating required resources for effective working. In order to open up choice of business, your company has liquidated its assets, vide authority granted by the shareholders by postal ballot, results of which were declared on 20-1-2005. The funds generated there from are currently invested in interest fetching loans/deposits. Company has a positive net worth. Company has meager liability, which will be met out of the liquidity generated. Your directors are evaluating various options open to the company to recommence its activities but it is difficult to predict any time frame for such success.

4. DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITY

Pursuant to section 217 (2AA) of the Companies Act, 1956, the Directors confirm:

- that in the preparation of annual accounts, the applicable accounting standards have been followed and that no material departures have been made from it.
- that they have selected such accounting policies and applied them consistently and made judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent so as to give a true and fair view of the state of the affairs of the company at the end of financial year and of profit and loss of the Company for that year.
- that they have taken proper and sufficient care for the maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of Companies Act 1956 for safeguarding the assets of the company and for preventing and detecting fraud and other irregularities.
- that considering the fact that the company's net worth is positive and that company has investable surplus after meeting its liabilities fully, the annual accounts are prepared on going concern basis.

5. CORPORATE GOVERNANCE
