OPPORTUNITY & THREATS, RISK & CONCERNS

Cable and wire industry has established itself as one of the backbones of modern information age. The increasing importance for power, light and communication has kept demand high for wire and cable. This trend will continue as demand for reliable, efficient energy and data communications will strengthen the wire and cable industry. With strong investments proposed across sectors such as power, realty, industrial and telecom the cable industry in India is slated for a strong growth going forward. Apart from the above, Government impetus in refineries, ports, airport modernization, power and fertilizers will offer a boost to the wire and cable industry as almost all manufacturing companies need cables. Robust industrialization and growing urbanization are also one of the important drivers identified. Auto sector and railways are the other important sectors consuming wires and cables on a large scale. Additionally, growth will be fuelled by urbanization as cables and wires will be required in buildings and offices.

The success of the Company is dependent on how it manages the risk inherent to the business. Your Company operates in an environment which is highly dependent on commodities. Additionally, the Company operates in highly competitive segments, which are widely affected by the currency rates and changes in the Government policies.

Your Company is fully aware of these challenges and is geared to meet them. Your Company also recognizes the risks associated with business and takes adequate measures to address the associated risks and concerns.

The Company has laid down a well-defined risk management mechanism covering the risk mapping & trend analysis, risk exposure, potential impact and risk mitigation process. A detailed exercise is being carried out to identify, evaluate, manage and monitoring of both business and non-business risks. The management periodically reviews the risk and suggests steps to be taken to control and mitigate the same through a properly defined framework. In line with the new regulatory requirements, the Company has formally framed a Risk Management Policy to identify and assess the key risk areas, to monitor and report compliance and effectiveness of the policy and procedure.
