OPPORTUNITIES & THREAT

The increased cost of power has turned the general attention towards economy in power consumption. In the process the developed countries have concentrated in the CFL Lights. The Indian Market is not lagging behind. Encouraged by the growing demands for CFL Lamps more and more companies have entered the market by importing cheaper varieties from South Asia and Korea in bulk. There is a huge opportunity for domestic manufacture of CFL Variety at a lower cost. The company is in process of importing the Technologies for manufacture of CFL Variety here. But there is a threat of un - even competition from the dumping by cheaper varieties by foreign manufacturers from the East.

OUTLOOK:

The Company has finally come out the red and is now endeavouring to turn the table. Your Directors foresee brighter days ahead. The new generation is committed to grow progressively always in tune with the country's growth ahead.

RISK & CONCERN:

Your Directors do not foresee any immediate risk as such. Yet the following factors may influence further prospects to some extent:

- (i) fluctuation in Budget allocations for infrastructure Developments affecting the growth in the demand for Lighting products ; and
- (ii) Intensity of the price war imported by new entrants from other Asian Countires, specially China, USA and Korea.

RESEARCH & DEVELOPMENT :

The Company is in the process of setting up a more modern Research & Development centre with necessary state of the art laboratory facilities. The new setup will be exclusively engaged for development of a new
