EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

(Pursuant to Section 173 (2) of the Companies Act, 1956)

Item No. 6

In terms of Section 228 of the Companies Act, 1956, the Branch Offices of the Bank have to be audited either by Statutory Auditors or other qualified Auditors. Bank intends to entrust the Audit of Branch Offices either to the Statutory Auditors or to other qualified Auditors in consultation with Statutory Auditors on such remuneration and on such terms and conditions as the Board deems fit. The members are requested to authorize the Board of Directors of the Bank to appoint branch auditors in consultation with the Bank's Auditors and to fix their remuneration.

None of the Directors is concerned or interested in the Resolution under the above item. The Board recommends the passing of the above item as an Ordinary Resolution.

Item No. 7

The Board of Directors have decided to change the name of your Bank from 'The Dhanalakshmi Bank Limited' to 'Dhanlaxmi Bank Limited'. With increased competition in the industry, it is necessary to position the Bank as a young, dynamic and vibrant brand. As your Bank is expanding its footprint across the country it becomes imperative to get a wider acceptability for a brand that has stood for trust and heritage for the last 82 years. To create a connect with the old and the new, your Bank decided to retain the name and simplify the spelling to Dhanlaxmi Bank Limited. Goddess Lakshmi, has been an integral part of the logo, keeping true to the sentiments of all we have made Goddess Lakshmi more prominent in the new identity. Your Bank is about trust, wisdom and relationships; hence it was decided to choose 'Purple' - the colour of wealth and prosperity. You would have already taken note of the new vibrant brand 'DhanlaxmiBank' with Goddess Lakshmi, signifying prosperity.

For this purpose your Bank has already obtained approval from Reserve Bank of India (RBI). In the meantime, the Registrar of Companies, Kerala and Lakshadweep (RoC) has made available the new name for being adopted by the Bank subject to completion of compliance requirements in accordance with law.

Pursuant to Section 21 of the Companies Act, 1956 read with Section 16, alteration of the name clause of the Memorandum of Association (MoA) would require approval of shareholders by way of Special Resolution before an application could be made to RoC for their approval. Pursuant to Section 31 of the Companies Act, 1956 alteration of Articles of the Articles of Association (AoA) would also require approval of shareholders by way of Special Resolution and the resolutions under this item may be passed as special resolutions.

The change in name will take place only the date on which RoC will issue a fresh Certificate of Incorporation.

None of the Directors of your Bank is interested or concerned in the resolution under the above item.

Item No. 8

In order to meet the capital adequacy requirements of the Bank analogous with the business expansion and also for augmenting the resources, the Bank is proposing to make a Qualified Institutional Placement [QIP] by issue of not exceeding 2.10 crore equity shares of Rs.10/- each at such price or prices including premium on each share, to Qualified Institutional Buyers (QIBs) and for this purpose seeks your approval to the resolution proposed. QIP means allotment of eligible securities by a listed issuer to QIBs on private placement basis in terms of Chapter VIII of the SEBI ICDR Regulations.

Accordingly, the Bank proposes to make a further issue of shares by way of QIP in terms of SEBI ICDR Regulations. These Securities will be allotted only to QIBs in accordance with the SEBI ICDR Regulations.

The QIP shall be made at a price not less than the average of the weekly high and low of the closing prices of the equity shares of the same class quoted on the stock exchange during the two weeks preceding the relevant date. The prices and other terms of QIP will be in accordance with the SEBI ICDR Regulation.

The Relevant Date means the date of the meeting in which the Board/Committee decides to open the proposed issue.

Our Banks shares have been listed for more than one year in Bombay Stock Exchange Limited (BSE) and National Stock Exchange of India Limited (NSE), both exchanges having national wide terminals.

Post QIP, the Bank will continue to maintain the minimum public shareholding as per the Listing Agreement.

Pursuant to the provisions of Section 81(1A) and other applicable provisions of the Companies Act, 1956 and those of SEBI ICDR Regulations and in terms of the provisions of the Listing Agreements, the proposal to make a QIP should be approved by the shareholders by means of a Special Resolution.

The proposed QIP issue is in the interest of the Bank and the shareholders and the Board recommends the passing of the above item as a Special Resolution.

As per SEBI ICDR Regulations the Special Resolution under this item will be valid for a period of 12 months from the date of the passing of the Resolution.

The placement under this resolution will be made only after obtaining prior in principle approval from Reserve Bank of India (RBI) and in-principle approval from Stock Exchanges where the shares of the Bank are listed.

None of the Directors of your Bank is interested or concerned in the resolution under the above item.
