The Members of

RATNI INVESTMENTS COMPANY LIMITED

We have audited the attached Balance Sheet of RATNI INVESTMENTS COMPANY LIMITED as at 31st March, 1999 and also the Profit and Loss Account of the Company for the year ended on that date annexed thereto and report that

1. We have obtained all the information and explanations which, to the best of our knowledge and belief, were necessary for the purpose of our audit.
2. In our opinion, proper books of account as required by law have been kept by the Company so far as appears from our examination of those books.
3. The Balance Sheet and Profit and Loss Account dealt with by this Report are in agreement with the books of account.
4. In our opinion the Profit and Loss Account and the Balance Sheet are in compliance with the Accounting Standards prescribed by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India, as referred to in Section 211(3-C) of the Companies Act, 1956.
5. No provision has been made in the accounts for Interest aggregating to Rs. 74,73,354/- payable on a loan from a Company in terms of the Final Order of the Special Court. (Note : 5)

"Had the" provision been made in the accounts the loss for the year would have been more by Rs. 74,73,354/- and Profit and Loss Account would have shown an accumulated loss of Rs. 1,22,69,955/- instead of Rs. 47,96,601/- as at 31st March, 1999 and the liabilities also would have been more by Rs. 74,73,354/- as at 31st March, 1999.

6. Subject to the matters referred to in paragraph 5 above, in our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the said accounts, further subject to

i) valuation of stock of unquoted equity shares as explained in Note No : 4 ;

and

ii) applicability of the Provisions of Section 295 (1)(C) of the Companies Act, 1956 as stated in Note No : 7.

JAGTIANI & NAIK
CHARTERED ACCOUNTANTS

give the information required by the Companies Act, 1956 in the manner so required and give a true and fair view.

- a) In the case of Balance Sheet of the state of affairs of the Company as at 31st March, 1999.

- b) In the case of the Profit and Loss Account of the Loss for the year ended on that date.

7. As required by the Manufacturing and other Companies (Auditor's Report) order, 1988, under section 227 (4A) of the Companies Act, 1956 and on the basis of such checks as we consider appropriate, we further state that :

i) The Company has maintained accounting records to show the full particulars including quantitative details and situation of fixed assets. The fixed assets have been physically verified by the management and no discrepancy between the accounting records and physical inventory have been noticed.

ii) None of the fixed assets have been revalued during the year.

iii) In our opinion, the procedures for physical verification of stock followed by the management are reasonable and adequate in relation to the size of the Company and the nature of its business.

iv) No discrepancies have been noticed on physical verification of stock as compared to book records in so far as it appears from our examination of the books.

v) Subject to Note : 4 to accounts, in our opinion and on the basis of our examination, the valuation of stock is fair and proper in accordance with the normally accepted accounting principle and is on the same basis as in the preceding year.

vi) The Company has not taken any loans, secured or unsecured from Companies, firms or other parties, whose names are listed in the Register maintained U/s. 301 of the Companies Act, 1956 except temporary advance of Rs. 2,000/- from director which was repaid during the year.

vii) The Company has granted interest free loans to Private Companies in which a director of the Company is a director. The terms and conditions of such loans are not prima facie prejudicial to the interest of the Company.

viii) The Company has given

- a) Interest free loans to staff, companies and other parties without any stipulation as to repayment.

JAGTIANI & NAIK
CHARTERED ACCOUNTANTS

- b) Interest bearing loan to Company without any stipulation as to repayment of principal amount and interest.
- ix) In our opinion and according to information and explanations given to us there are adequate internal control procedures commensurate with the size of the company and nature of its business for purchase of equipment and other assets.
- x) The company has not accepted any deposits from the public within the meaning of Section 58A of the Companies Act, 1956 and rules framed thereunder. We have been informed by the Company that the directions issued by Reserve Bank of India for Non-Banking Financial Companies does not apply to the Company.
- xi) According to the information given to us, Provident Fund Act and Employees' State Insurance Scheme are not applicable to the Company.
- xii) According to the information and explanation given to us and the books and records examined by us, there are no undisputed amounts payable in respect of Income Tax, Wealth Tax, Sales Tax, Custom Duty and Excise Duty, outstanding as at 31st March, 1999 for period exceeding six months from the date they became payable.
- xiii) During the course of our examination of the books of account carried out in accordance with the generally accepted auditing practices, we have not come across any personal expenses charged to revenue accounts other than those payable under contractual obligations or in accordance with generally accepted business practice.
- xiv) According to information and explanation given to us, the Company has not granted loans and advances on the basis of security by the way of pledge of shares, debentures and other similar securities.
- xv) The company is not engaged in business of Chit Fund, Nidhi, Mutual Benefit Society etc.
- xvi) In our opinion and according to the explanation given to us, the Company has maintained proper records of the transactions and contracts involving shares and timely entries have been made therein. We have been unable to physically verify the investment held by the company as most of these investments have been seized by the Central Bureau of Investigation along with other records in June, 1992.
