5. MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS:

Industry Structure and developments in the Company:

As per industry experts the Diagnostics Market in India is witnessing around 13 to 15% growth but mostly in specific segments only. Looking at segment-wise growth, Infectious disease and life style related diseases diagnosis are still the growth driver. Also Molecular diagnostics and Tissue diagnostics segment is growing at an impressive rate. Dolphin Medical Services Ltd., is one of the players in Diagnostics Industry in India, operating mainly in infectious diseases and Clinical Chemistry segment. The growth can be attributed to the factors such as increasing scope and awareness about diagnostics, improved diagnostics tools, etc.

Further High prevalence of life style related diseases such as Diabetes, Cancer, Cardiac disease and incidences of communicable and infectious diseases like HIV/AIDS, Malaria, Typhoid are still cause of concern. Thus, the scope of growth for the Indian diagnostic sector is still bright. The future prospect of Diagnostics Industry looks promising and Dolphin Medical Services Ltd., being one of the leaders in this segment is bound to benefit from it.

However, with the advent of low cost diagnostic kits and equipment and lack of proper regulatory systems in place, every small nursing home in the country is starting a diagnostic set up of its own in its own premises akin to the inhouse pharmacy units set up. This is creating a dent in the marketing potential of the standalone diagnostic centres, which are hitherto depending mostly on individual nursing homes and clinics of the respective regions.

The huge interest burden of the bank loans along with other facts affected your company very much causing severe financial strain on the company and also adversely affected the functioning of the company. However the company is making every effort to resolve the issues to the company's advantage.

Opportunities and threats:

As a strategic decision, Dolphin Medical Services Ltd., is exploring expanding to selected high growth markets and even the product development is aligned with the potential of such segment representing high growth prospects. However, the unethical competition especially in the standalone segment is a major risk factor and we are trying to find out ways and means of overcoming this risk and also other inherent & associated risk factors.

Outlook:

Diagnostic Services business in India has become matured over the years. Standalone Diagnostic Centres are now divided into two very clear categories – One will have the facilities of Radiology, Lab and related modalities etc., and the other one is only with exclusive Laboratories. However, your company pioneered the concept of all diagnostic facilities under one roof and it will continue to be bracketed in the same category in future also.

Risks and concerns:

There is vast expansion of huge corporate hospitals with inhouse comprehensive diagnostic set up all over the country which is indirectly affecting the potential of the standalone diagnostic centres.

The huge devaluation of the rupee also is increasing the cost of import of sophisticated medical equipment and diagnostic kits & consumables, which further suffocates the margins involved in the business, making the expansion plan suffer.
