5. DEPOSITS:

Your Company has not accepted any deposits within the meaning of Section 73 of the Companies Act, 2013 and the Companies (Acceptance of Deposits) Rules, 2014.

6. FUTURE OUTLOOK:

There is cut throat competition in the IT industry and more particularly in hardware and software. To mitigate the same, management had adopted defensive strategy in order to maintain the market share of your Company. At Present many policies are being formed/adopted by the present Government which may be beneficial to the Company in future.

The global economy in FY 2015-16 witnessed divergent trends among major economies. The Indian economy and business environment remained largely subdued during 2015-16. The global economic recovery is gaining momentum coupled with some divergence. India's economy is poised to return to its high-growth path, thanks to lower fiscal and current account deficits, falling inflation, low crude oil price, moderate commodity prices, and structural reforms to boost investments. Monetary policy is also likely to be supportive with the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) having moved to flexible inflation targeting. The manufacturing sector is likely to benefit from lower interest rates. However, productivity and capital efficiency improvement are likely to drive near-term growth.

Annual Report 2015-16

Demand from export as well as domestic markets has not increased substantially. Volatility of rupee may hamper growth of economy.

The thrust on the competitive strength, newer product development and consolidation of customer relationship has resulted into a bright future for the Company. The company expects to retain the performance in the current year.
