III. Other information:

- (i) Reasons for loss or inadequate profits:

During the Financial Year 2011-12, the Company posted a Net Profit of ₹ 201.39 Crores as against a Net Profit of ₹ 141.81 Crores during Financial Year 2010-11.

The profitability of the Company (FHL) is dependent upon the following factors:

1. The dependence of business on Professionals: With rising competition in the field of healthcare, the demand for professional doctors/nurses/ paramedical staff has gone up and the supply is limited. Due to the same, the industry observes high attrition ratio and to retain the staff or get the same people back, the company needs to keep offering suitable remuneration to these professionals.
2. The Company follows an aggressive growth strategy through organic and inorganic route, which puts pressure to the existing profit margins.
3. New Hospital projects in Healthcare industry involve substantial capital investment and are characterized by long gestation periods, resulting into losses in the initial years and gradual growth of business/ revenue.
4. The healthcare segment is under served in the country and is dependant for growth on the private sector and the Insurance Industry.

- (ii) Steps taken or proposed to be taken for improvement:

1. The Company and its subsidiaries have been continuously evaluating various business and ownership strategies (the "Fortis Group"), and various models for raising long-term financial resources by capitalising upon the expertise of the Fortis Group. Consequently, your Company is undergoing an internal corporate restructuring, whereby the business of certain identified hospitals of the Fortis Group will be divided into (i) Clinical Establishments Division; and (ii) Medical Services Division.
2. The Company has proposed an Initial Public Offer of units in a business trust, which would, through its trustee manager on behalf of the business trust, indirectly own the Clinical Establishments Division, on the Singapore Exchange Securities Trading Limited, the proceeds whereof shall be primarily used for repayment of outstanding loans owed to the Company and its subsidiaries and payment of consideration to the Company and its subsidiaries for transfer of their shareholding and interest in its certain subsidiaries.
3. With the support of skilled doctors, dedicated to quality patient care and modern, patient-centric hospital facilities and a Cost-effective business model, the Company expects better and improved cash flows in the future.
4. The Company focuses on high-end quality healthcare services for reducing the average length of stay (ALOS) of the inpatients thereby increasing the average income per bed in use and thus improving the asset turnover ratios.
5. The management has implemented better supply chain management procedures for maximizing efficiencies across various Fortis hospitals. This has resulted in tangible cost savings across all Hospitals.
6. The promoters of Fortis are committed for providing compassionate medical care at the most affordable prices. The Company has also launched low cost health centres in the name of "Rencare" to cater to masses.

Item No. 10

The Non Executive Directors play a very critical and significant role in supporting independent decision making on the board. Ms. Joji Sekhon Gill and Mr. Pradeep Ratilal Raniga, also bring in strategic guidance, leadership and an independent view to the Company's Management with discharging their fiduciary responsibilities, thereby ensuring that the Management adheres to highest standards of ethics, transparency and disclosure. Considering the amount of time spent by the Non-Executive Directors in the deliberations of Board and the valuable guidance given by them to the Management from time to time, it is proposed that in addition to payment of sitting fees, an honorarium should also be paid to Ms. Joji Sekhon Gill and Mr. Pradeep Ratilal Raniga, Non Executive Directors on the Board of the Company.

Based on the proposal initiated by the Human Resources and Remuneration Committee, the Board of Directors of the Company in its meeting held on 14th August, 2012, recommended the payment of an honorarium of an amount of ₹ 7.50 Lacs per annum, which amount shall be increased by ₹ 2.50 Lacs per annum in case such Non-Executive Director is also a Chairman of any Committee(s) of the Board of Directors, subject to the approval of the Shareholders of the Company and the Central Government.

As per Section 309(4) of the Companies Act, 1956, the Non-Executive Directors may be paid remuneration by way of a monthly, quarterly or annual payment with the previous approval of the Shareholders and Central Government.

The Board of Directors recommends the resolution as set out at Item No.10 for the approval of the Members as Special Resolution.

None of the Directors, except Ms. Joji Sekhon Gill and Mr. Pradeep Ratilal Raniga shall deemed to be interested in the resolution to the extent of the proposed remuneration payable to them.

Item Nos. 11 & 12

The exponential growth of the Company has, in large measure, been possible owing to the wholehearted support, commitment and teamwork of its employees. The Company believes that all the employees of the Company and/ or its subsidiaries and / or its holding company are the true stakeholders and should participate in the growth and prosperity of the Company.
