DEMATERIALISATION OF SHARES

Dear Shareholder,

We are pleased to inform you that we have completed all the formalities with respect to Dematerialisation of Shares and the Shares can be traded in Demat form. The ISIN number allotted to the Company is INE 769B01010.

For Shareholders who are not familiar with the Dematerialisation form of trading, a brief description about demat is furnished below-

Dematerialisation is a process by which physical share certificates held by an investor are surrendered to the Company and converted into an equivalent numbers of shares credited to the shareholder in the form of electronic holding in a depository through a Depository Participant(DP).

The steps for dematerialisation of your shares are as follows :-

Before joining the depository system and dematerialising your shares, please ensure that the shares are held in your name. If you have received market delivery of shares, you will have to send the same for transfer, as in the normal course and after the shares have been transferred in your name, you can proceed with the dematerialisation.

1. You have to approach a DP of your choice and open an account with the DP by filling an Account Opening Form. You will then receive your account number, which serves as a reference and should be quoted for all your future dealings.
2. After you have been allotted the account number, send the share certificate(s) to the DP along with the Dematerialisation Request Form(DRF).
3. Upon receipt of the DRF along with the original certificate(s) the DP will request the Company through the depository for the confirmation and simultaneously forward your DRF and share certificate(s) to the Company.
4. Upon receipt of the DRF and your share certificate(s), the registrars will carry out the requisite verification and confirm acceptance of shares for dematerialisation.
5. The depository will then confirm the dematerialisation to your DP.
6. The DP will credit your account with the number of shares dematerialised and thereafter, you would hold these shares in a dematerialised or electronic form.
7. Your DP will provide you a statement of holding and a statement of transactions, which is like a passbook.

In respect of shares held in electronic form, all issues of rights/bonus shares accruing thereon would be directly allotted in the depository mode.

8. Buying and selling dematerialised shares is similar to buying and selling physical shares, the only difference is that trading in dematerialised shares is simpler, safer and faster.
9. If you wish to sell your dematerialised shares, place an order with your broker and instruct your DP by way of a Delivery Instruction (which is a cheque like instrument) to debit your account with number of shares sold by you.
10. When you buy the dematerialised shares, you must inform your broker your depository account number, so that the dematerialised shares bought by you are credited to your account.

In case you have any queries, please feel free to contact us.

Yours truly,

Hyderabad
25.10.2000
