ANNEXURE TO THE AUDITOR'S REPORT

(Annexure referred to in paragraph 1 of the Auditor's Report of Even Date)

1. The Company has maintained proper records showing full particulars including quantitative details and situation of its fixed assets including leased assets. As informed to us, the fixed assets of the company including leased assets have been physically verified by the management during the year and no material discrepancies were noticed on such verification as compared with the available records.
2. None of the fixed assets have been revalued during the year.
3. As explained to us, the stock in trade of Equity Shares and traded goods has been physically verified by the management at reasonable intervals during the year.
4. In our opinion and according to information and explanations given to us the procedures of physical verification of stock followed by the management are reasonable and adequate in relation to the size of the Company and the nature of its business.
5. As informed to us, no discrepancies were noticed on such physical verification as compared to book records.
6. As our opinion and on the basis of our examination, the valuation of stock in trade is fair and proper and in accordance with normally accepted accounting principles and is on the same basis as in earlier year.
7. The Company has not taken loans from Companies, firm or other parties listed in the Register maintained under Section 301 of the Companies Act, 1956. In terms of sub section (6) of section 370 of the Companies Act, 1956, provisions of the section are not applicable.
8. The Company has not granted any loans to Companies, firms or other parties listed in the Register maintained under Section 301 of the Companies Act, 1956. In terms of sub section (6) of section 370 of the Companies Act, 1956, provisions of the section are not applicable.
9. Parties including staff to whom loans or advances in the nature of loans have been given by the Company are generally repaying the principal amounts, wherever stipulated, and are also regular in payment of interest, where applicable. In respect of amounts overdue, where repayment has not been stipulated in the ordinary course of business, we are given to understand that reasonable steps have been taken by the Company for recovery of the same.
10. In our opinion and according to the information and explanations given to us, it appears that there are adequate internal control procedures commensurate with the size of the Company and the nature of its business for the purchase of assets.
11. According to the information and explanations given to us, there were no transactions of purchase and sale of shares and services made in pursuance of contracts or arrangements entered in the Register maintained under Section 301 of the Companies Act, 1956 and aggregating during the year to Rs. 50000/- or more in respect of each party.
12. As the Company is dealing in Shares the question of determination of unserviceable or damaged stores, raw materials and finished goods does not arise.
13. The Company has not accepted deposits from the public to which the provisions of Section 58-A of the Companies Act, 1956 and the Companies (Acceptance of Deposits) Rules 1975 apply.
14. We have been informed that the Company does not have any activity which generates any scrap or by-products and hence the question of maintenance of records for sale and disposal of realisable by products and scrap does not arise.
15. The company did not have any formal internal audit system during the year under review. However, the Company has explained that its internal control procedures involve reasonable internal checking of its financial records.
16. As informed to us, the Central government has not prescribed the maintenance of cost records under Section 209(1)(d) of the Companies Act, 1956 by the Company.
17. According to the information and explanations given to us, the provisions of the Employee's Provident and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1952, and the Employee's state Insurance Act, 1948, are not applicable to the Company.
18. According to the records of the Company there are no undisputed amounts payable in respect of income-tax, wealth-tax, Sales-tax, custom duty and excise duty which were outstanding as at the year end, for a period of more than six months from the date they became payable.
19. According to the information and explanations given to us, no personal expenses, other than those payable under contractual obligations or in accordance with generally accepted business practices, were charged to the revenue account.
20. As the Company is a Finance Company, Clause-4(A)(XX) of the Order is not applicable to the Company.
21. In respect of service activities of the Company, there exists reasonable internal control system commensurate with the size of the Company and nature of its business.
22. We have been informed that the Company has not granted any loans and advances on the basis of security by way of pledge of shares, debentures and other securities.
23. According to the management, the provisions of any special statute applicable to Chit Fund, Nidhi or Mutual benefit Society do not apply to the Company.
24. In our opinion and according to the information and explanations given to us, the company has maintained proper records of transactions and contracts of dealing in shares, securities and other investments and timely entries have been made therein. The same have been held by the company in its own name except to the extent of the exemption granted under section 49 of the Companies Act, 1956 or where these are in the process of transfer to its name.
