EXPLANATORY STATEMENT PURSUANT TO SECTION 173(2) OF THE COMPANIES ACT, 1956.

ITEM NO. 4

The management of the company has believed that high value denomination of the shares may deter small shareholders from acquiring the piece of wealth- share of the Company. It is in this context that the management feels splitting of face value of shares into smaller denomination, would enhance the Company's access to small investors.

In view of this, the Board at their meeting held on 3rd July, 2010, considered it desirable to sub-divide the nominal value of the Equity portion of the authorized capital of the Company. The shareholders may please note that presently the nominal value of the Equity shares is Rs. 10/- each and consequent to the sub-division it is being divided into 10 (Ten) Equity shares of Re. 1/- each. The date on which this sub-division would become effective, will be decided by the Board after obtaining the shareholders approval, which will be notified through the Stock Exchanges.

The proposed resolution placed at Item no.4 of this Notice, is intended to give effect to the above proposal and is placed before the Members for according approval thereto by passing an Ordinary Resolution.

The Board of Directors recommend the resolution for approval of the members.

A copy of a Memorandum and Articles of Association of the company is open for inspection by any member of the Company between 4.30 p.m to 6.30 p.m at the Registered Office of the Company.

None of the Directors of the Company is in any way interested in the said resolution, except to the extent of their shareholding in the Company.

Item No. 5

Consequent to the sub division of nominal value of the Equity portion of the Authorized Share Capital of the Company (as per item no.4 of the notice), it is necessary to alter the Capital Clause of the Memorandum of Association of the Company.

Section 16 read with Section 94 of the Companies Act, 1956, provides inter alia, that subject to the provision of the Companies Act, 1956 and the conditions contained in its Articles, the Company may, alter its Memorandum of Association by passing an Ordinary Resolution, at a general meeting.

Accordingly, an Ordinary Resolution for item no. 5 is placed before the meeting to approve the corresponding amendments in Clause V of the Memorandum of Association in the manner set out in the text of the respective resolutions, so as to reflect the alteration in the Authorized Share Capital of the Company.

The Board of Directors of the Company accordingly, recommends the resolution for approval by the members.

The Directors of the Company are deemed to be concerned or interested in the resolution only to the extent of shares held by them in the Company.

ITEM NO. 6

Consequent to the sub-division of the face value of the Equity Shares of the Company (as per item no. 4 of the notice); it is necessary to alter the Article 5 of the Articles of Association of the Company.

Section 31 read with Section 94 of the Companies Act, 1956, provides inter alia, that subject to the provision of the Companies Act, 1956 and the conditions contained in its Memorandum, the Company may, alter its articles by passing a Special Resolution, at a general meeting.

Accordingly, the Special Resolution is placed before the meeting to approve the corresponding amendments in Article 5 of the Articles of Association in the manner set out in the text of the respective resolutions, so as to reflect the alteration in the Authorized Share Capital of the Company.

The Board of Directors of the Company accordingly, recommends the resolution for approval by the members.

The Directors of the Company are deemed to be concerned or interested in the resolution only to the extent of shares held by them in the Company.

DIVIDEND:

Due to requirement of funds for the current working of the Company, your Directors express their inability to recommend any dividend on Equity Share Capital for the year under review.

OPERATIONAL REVIEW:

The Company at each Board meeting considers a number of performance parameters to assess the Company's success in achieving the objectives.

The Key Performance Indicators (KPI's) used to measure the progress and performance of the Company over time are as follows:

- The movement in net asset value per ordinary share compared to benchmark.
- The movement in share prices.
- Total expense ratio.
- Earnings per Share.
- Dividend per Share.

In addition to this the Board considers peer group comparative performance.

The Company in its current Financial Year 2009-2010 has achieved a strong and desirable growth as compared to the previous year 2008-2009. Such growth is reflected from the increase in Gross income earned by the Company from its operations, the increase being from 0.89 lacs to 87.89 lacs. As compared to the loss earned by the Company in its previous financial year, the Company has risen in its parameters by achieving a profit of Rs. 56.76 lacs.

FUTURE OUTLOOK:

The Company's performance in the Financial Year 2009-2010 has been encouraging.

The Company has a preliminary view that distribution of financial products would be one of the main lines of business for the Company in future. The management has therefore decided to focus on distribution of financial products as a key business of the Company in the coming years.

The Company has made a cautious beginning in financial product distribution business with a limited product range. The product repertoire would be gradually expanded by taking up distribution of other financial products.

BUSINESS STRATEGY :

Your Directors strategy has been to restructure the Company thoroughly to impart to it the ability to meet the adverse conditions and to work continuously on cost reduction.

To meet its entire client's need, the Company needs to pursue a strategy of being customer centric and Cost effective. As a full service provider, the Company believes that it can increase its revenues from existing clients as well as attract new clients and markets.

The impressive financial results of the Company clearly demonstrate that your Company's strategy has worked and is possible to continue in future also.
