other persons, unless the nomination is varied or cancelled in the manner prescribed under the Act.

- (4) Where the nominee is a minor, the holder of the shares or debentures intending to make the nomination in favour of such minor shall appoint in the manner prescribed under the Act, any person to become entitled to the shares or debentures in the event of his death till such time as the minor attains majority.

62B. Transmission in case of nomination

Any person who becomes a nominee by virtue of the provisions of Section 109A of the Act, upon production of such evidence as may be required by the Board and subject as hereinafter provided may elect either-

- (a) To register himself as the holder of the shares or debentures; or
 - (b) To make such transfer of the shares or debentures as the deceased shareholder or debenture holder could have made.
- (2) If the person being a nominee, so entitled, elects to be registered as the holder of the shares or debentures himself, he shall deliver or send to the Company a notice in writing duly signed by him stating that he so elects, and such notice shall be accompanied by the death certificate of the deceased shareholder/debenture holder.
- (3) All the limitations, restrictions and provisions of the Act relating to the right to transfer and the registration of transfer of shares or debentures shall be applicable to any such notice or transfer as aforesaid as if the death of the member had not occurred and the notice or transfer were signed by the shareholder or debenture holder, as the case may be.
- (4) A person being a nominee, becoming entitled to a share or debenture by reason of the death of the holder shall be entitled to the same dividend/interest and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the share or debenture except that he shall not, before being registered as a member in respect of his shares or as a holder of the debentures, be entitled to exercise any rights conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the Company.

Provided that the Board may at any time give notice requiring any such person to elect either to register himself or to transfer the shares or debentures, and if such notice is not complied with within ninety days, the Board may, thereafter, withhold payments of all dividend, bonus or other moneys payable in respect of the shares or debentures until the requirements of the notice have been complied with."
