Management Discussion & Analysis Report:

INDUSTRY STRUCTURE

The Indian Pharmaceutical Industry is highly organized and is estimated to be growing at about 8 to 9 per cent annually. It ranks very high in the third world, in terms of technology, quality and range of medicines manufactured. From simple headache pills to sophisticated antibiotics and complex cardiac compounds, almost every type of medicine is now made indigenously.

Playing a key role in promoting and sustaining development in the vital field of medicines, Indian Pharma Industry boasts of quality producers and many units approved by regulatory authorities in USA and UK. It has expanded drastically in the last two decades. It is an extremely fragmented market with severe price competition and government price control.

Following the de-licensing of the pharmaceutical industry, industrial licensing for most of the drugs and pharmaceutical products has been done away with. Manufacturers are free to produce any drug duly approved by the Drug Control Authority. Technologically strong and totally self-reliant, the pharmaceutical industry in India has low costs of production, low R&D costs, innovative scientific manpower, strength of national laboratories and an increasing balance of trade. The Pharmaceutical Industry, with its rich scientific talents and research capabilities, supported by Intellectual Property Protection regime is well set to take on the international market.

OPPORTUNITIES AND THREATS

Opportunities

India has a pool of personnel with high managerial and technical competence as also skilled workforce. Its track record of development, particularly in the area of improved cost-beneficial chemical synthesis for various drug molecules is excellent. It provides a wide variety of bulk drugs and exports sophisticated bulk drugs. It has a good network of world-class educational institutions and established strengths in Information Technology. For the first time in many years, the international pharmaceutical industry is finding great opportunities in India. India has a years old democracy and hence has a solid legal framework and strong financial markets. There is already an established international industry and business community.

Threats

Menace and risk posted by counterfeit drugs, which is growing consistently keeping pace with the growth of the industry with improved sophistication and skills in the art of counterfeit. Increase in the input cost, effecting the margins of Pharma companies which are already reeling under pressure on prices due to unhealthy competition from small manufacturers using unethical methods. The Pharma industry operated in a highly regulated industry and must comply with a broad range of dynamic regulatory controls, particularly in regulated markets.

SEGMENTWISE PERFORMANCE

Sales for last 2 years is as follows:

	Rs. in '000 2005-06	Rs. in '000 2004-05
Formulation	415714	183430
Bulk Drugs	75867	59216
Consumer Products	85635	94778
Chemicals	30975	102718
Agro Products	10844	118234
Total	619035	558376

OUTLOOK

The general outlook for the Company for the year 2006-07 is positive. The Company's strategic direction is meeting with positive response from its clients and partners. It has developed scalable client relationship in its focus markets, which are expected to lead business over the next financial year. Cost control initiatives to be initiated by the company will contribute to increased profitability in the coming year. The current trends bode well for significant performance improvement going forward. Moreover the Company continues focus on Research & Development for the development of new products also happens to improve profitability of the Company.

RISK AND CONCERN

There has been continues pressure on prices and billing rates with increasing input cost and transport freight which is eroding profit of your Company. The process of consolidation, which has become a generalized phenomenon in the world pharmaceutical industry, there is a great risk in concentrating the resources on a specific segment has started taking place in India. Increase in the cost of financing the working capital requirement could squeeze the bottom line of the Company. The new policy which intends to put more items under price control ambit may have effect on prices of products marketed by the Company.

INTERNAL CONTROL SYSTEM

Your Company has strong and adequate internal audit and control system which is commensurate with the nature and size of the organisation. Strong internal controls have been designed to ensure compliance with various policies, practices and statues and to prevent the fraud and misuse of the Company's resources and to protect shareholders' interests. The internal audit procedures ensures to monitor the controls and communicate any feedback, positive or negative, directly to the management.

HUMAN RESOURCES DEVELOPMENT AND INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS

Management considers personnel as vital part of the Company. Our Company strive for continuous up gradation of its Human Resources at all level at all functions. Company always ensures optimum utilization of available manpower. Company strongly believe in "Care for Employee", philosophy to ensure, to attract, to retain and upgrade best talent.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT

Statements in this Management Discussion & Analysis describing the company's objectives, projections, estimates and expectations may be forward looking statements within the meaning of applicable laws and regulations. All though we believe our expectation are based on reasonable assumptions, these forward-looking statements may be influenced by numerous risk and uncertainties that could cause actual outcomes and results to be materially different from those expressed or implied.
