GUJARAT PIPAVAV PORT LIMITED

ANNUAL REPORT 2010

CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT

Dear Shareholders,

I am pleased to present the 2010 annual report on the performance of the company, following the successful IPO and listing on the National Stock Exchange of India and the Bombay Stock Exchange in September 2010.

In 2009, the port infrastructure improvement project was completed. Although the 2009 global economic crisis sparked a 12.2% contraction in global trade volume, your company managed to grow 65% in volumes in the same year. Against that backdrop, container volumes has further seen a 45% increase in 2010 on the back of new clients and services as well as improved hinterland connectivity. The Company's value proposition to the customer has centered on faster turnaround of vessels, better connectivity and evacuation facilities. The positive commercial and operational trend of the last several quarters have continued and the focus now shifts to delivering on strategic plans and be positioned for continued growth in 2011.

From the financial perspective, your company recorded its first quarterly profit ever of Rs. 111 million in 2010, marking a turnaround from a negative Rs. 349 million in the comparable quarter in 2009. Increase in volumes, better realizations, remaining focused on the cost and also reduction in the interest cost has allowed your company to deliver a strong financial and operational performance for the year. Operating income grew by 29% to Rs. 2,839 million (2009 – Rs. 2,207 million) and EBITDA increased by 134% to Rs. 1,174 million (2009 – Rs. 503 million). Your company has managed to repay some of its high cost debt from the IPO proceeds and obtain lower interest rates for the existing loans.

During the year, the company has successfully managed to execute projects that aid to smooth operations. Your company has been conferred with several awards in recognition of its high service standards, namely "Emerging Gateway Port of the Year" given by EXIM, EPC World Award for "Outstanding Contribution in Ports and Shipping" and also the Chemtech Foundation Award for the "Fastest Growing Port in India".

Your company continued to fulfill its part in corporate social responsibility, making it an integral part of good business practice. In the year, the company focused on assisting the local community through education, infrastructure and medical care.

India is already poised to become an important player in global trade and a growth rate of over 9% is forecasted for 2011. With trade volume typically growing at twice the GDP growth rate in developing economies, one can expect volumes increase in the range of 16-17% in India. Improved capacity and infrastructure, along with the Government's efforts will be key elements fuelling the country's growth potential in the coming years. Your company's focus will be to fully exploit its locational advantage, improved support infrastructure and operational reliability to increase the port's throughput in the coming years.

On behalf of the Board of Directors, I would like to take this opportunity to express high appreciation to the entire staff for their dedication and hard work, to my fellow Board colleagues for their continued support and guidance, and finally to our business partners and shareholders for their enduring confidence in the Company.

Yours faithfully,

Sd/-Per Jorgensen Chairman Gujarat Pipavav Port Limited
