Management Discussion and Analysis forming part of the Directors' Report for the year ended on 31st March, 2008

A. INDUSTRY STRUCTURE AND DEVELOPMENTS

Global energy demand grows despite the substantial increase in oil and natural gas prices that are projected to persist in mid term outlook. Natural gas has emerged as the most preferred fuel due to its inherent environmentally benign nature, greater efficiency and cost effectiveness. The demand for natural gas is growing faster than any fossil fuel.

Global Natural gas consumption is projected to increase from about 100 trillion cubic feet in 2004 to 163 trillion cubic feet in 2030 @ 1.9% per year.

The Asian gas markets are leading the growth in global gas sector, with specific investment focus on countries like India and China. With China's energy demand growing by 15% and India's by 7.8%, these two Asian giants are projected to be the leading gas consumers by the year 2020.

India is fast emerging as the focal point for the future development of the Asian Natural Gas Market. The rapid growth of the Indian Economy has greatly contributed to the development of the Indian Energy Sector as a whole and provided major triggers for the growth of the gas sector as well. Natural gas demand in India is expected to increase from 35 bcm to 142 bcm in 2025 @CAGR of 8.5%.

There is shortage of natural gas in India with demand far outstripping supply. The production of gas from major gas discoveries in KG Basin is likely to commence in second half of 2008, which will help in narrowing the demand supply gap.

Major developments in the natural gas sector in India are summarized below,

- Constitution of Regulatory Board under the PNGRB Act.
- Expansion of capacity of LNG Terminal by Petronet LNG and commencement of work for setting up LNG Terminal in Kochi.
- Expansion of capacity of LNG Terminal by Hazira LNG.
- Procurement of spot cargoes at prevailing global LNG prices along with significant volume expansion has improved the visibility of India as a gas buyer.
- Noticeable increase in development activities for setting up cross country transmission pipelines / City Gas Distribution (CGD) Networks in & across various states in India

Gujarat, with its large industrial base, growing energy needs and proactive government approach, has emerged as a Vibrant Hub for gas industry.

As per CRISIL report, natural gas demand in the State is expected to increase from 54.1 mmscmd in 2005 to 94.5 mmscmd by 2010. This is mainly due to the fact that many industries are switching over to gas for their fuel and feedstock requirements. The expansion of the gas grid into new markets has resulted in substantial increase in the demand for gas through expansion of capacities of existing projects, setting up of new Industries and development of CGD networks in Gujarat.

Keeping in view the demand potential of natural gas, the Company has built in additional capacity in its pipeline network to cater to the future demand. The Company will be benefited by transmission of additional volumes available on account of increase in supply of natural gas in the state.

Regulatory Framework :

Regulatory Board under the Petroleum and Natural Gas Regulatory Board Act, 2006 (the Act), is set up and the Board has started framing rules and regulations under the Act.

B. OPPORTUNITIES AND CHALLENGES

Your Company is well poised to take full advantage of the new opportunities arising out of the above developments in the gas industry.

The Company owns and operates the second largest natural gas transmission network in India. The Company is the first and only pure natural gas transmission company in India for transmission of natural gas on an "open access" basis, which means that the Company makes gas transmission capacity available to any shipper on a nondiscriminatory basis. The unique business model of "Pure Transmission Services and Open Access" adopted by the Company are in line with the spirit of new regulatory regime.

The Company has enhanced its equity investment in GSPC Gas Company Ltd and Sabarmati Gas Limited which are developing CGD Network in the State of Gujarat.

C. OUTLOOK

There is a huge unsatisfied demand for natural gas and the Company believes that the domestic gas/LNG would flow in to meet the unsatisfied demand. The power and fertilizer sectors will drive the growth in demand in the state as well as in the country. The industrial clusters and the domestic distribution networks would also boost the demand for gas.

The Company recognizes the growing importance of natural gas as an environment friendly fuel to industry as well as to domestic and transport sectors. The Company believes that natural gas will continue to be a favoured fuel and feedstock because of economic and environmental advantages over alternative fuels.

D.SEGMENT WISE OR PRODUCT WISE PERFORMANCE

Being in the service industry, no disclosure is required to be given classifying segment or product wise performance.

E. OPERATIONS AND FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE

The Company has managed to achieve fast track growth in a short period of time with a lean manpower strength on account of its well thought out strategy of developing pipeline projects on EPC (Engineering, Procurement and Construction) Model. EPC Model adopted by the Company envisages development of projects at a lump sum fixed price within a given time frame. Further, Net Worth of the Company has increased from Rs.956.59 crore to Rs.1167.33 crore as compared to previous year. Gross Block of Assets has increased from Rs. 1888.92 crores to Rs.2019.05 crores and consequently there has been an increase in depreciation from Rs. 102.61 crore to Rs.163.22 crore.

The Company had raised Rs. 107.35 crore through preferential allotment to International Finance Corporation during the year and has utilised the entire amount till 31.03.2008 for projects payments. Further there was no deviation in the purpose for which the funds have been raised and the utilization of the funds.

F. RISK MANAGEMENT AND INTERNAL CONTROL SYSTEMS

The Company has a well-defined risk management framework. The Board of Directors of the Company has adopted a risk management policy, reviewed the Risk Register and put in place a framework for reviewing the major risks. The Company is focusing on development of a "risk culture" that encourages all employees to identify risks and associated opportunities and to respond to them with effective actions.

The Company has appointed M/s KPMG as Internal Auditors who conduct internal audit for various activities. The reports of Internal Auditors are submitted to the Management and Audit Committee of Directors, which reviews the adequacy of internal control system.

G. HUMAN RESOURCES

During the year, the Company did not experience any strikes or lockouts. The Company employed 126 employees as on 31st March, 2008 (Previous year 117 employees).

Keeping in view the expansion of business, the Board has approved rolling manpower plan for next three years, which is likely to increase manpower strength to 283 employees by 2009.

The company believes that training and development of employees is of vital importance to capitalize on emerging business opportunities. During the year employees were sent for various training programmes and seminars in line with the Annual Training Calendar to enhance employee skills.

The Company has in place an attractive policy of performance linked incentive to encourage and reward employee performance.

The Company has managed to achieve substantial growth with a lean organization structure.
