3. Industry Trends and Business Analysis

The year 2007-08 witnessed the evolution of the sub prime crisis in U.S which spread to the global economies of the world – a financial crisis that begun to precipitate a major recession in the U.S in 2008 and, in turn, raising the odds for a wider global downturn in 2009. Reflecting the deteriorating global outlook, the Indian economy which registered a GDP average growth rate of around 8% in the last five years, moderated to 6% in 2008-09 and further expected to fall to 5.5% in 2009-10.

The impact of recession has badly hit Indian real estate markets along with sectors like retail, steel, cement, hospitality and logistics. Till early 2008 the real estate industry was booming in India. Also the high networth of individual investors especially those involved in retail and IT had created demand in Indian real estate. However, the downturn produced shocking waves in the real estate market, which further impacted sectors like retail, cement and iron.

After seeing tremendous growth in the last few years, the prospects for Hotels and Hospitality industry also look grim. The global financial crisis coupled with political uncertainty and rising terrorist activities have adversely affected the Hospitality and Tourism sector in the past one year. However, in the long run the industry is expected to bounce back.
