Corporate Overview

About Us

Hindustan Unilever Limited is India's largest Fast Moving Consumer Goods (FMCG) Company with a 90-year heritage in the country. We are a Company of brands and people driven by our purpose of making sustainable living commonplace. Nine out of ten Indian households use one or more of our brands to look good, feel good and get more out of life.

We have a wide and resilient portfolio of 50+ brands, spanning 16 FMCG categories, which are a part of everyday life of millions of consumers across India. We manufacture over 65 billion units annually, that are made available to our consumers through nine million retail outlets and many digital commerce platforms.

Our Compass business strategy integrates sustainability across business operations, enabling us to deliver 4G growth, growth that is consistent, competitive, profitable and responsible. In a rapidly evolving world, where digitisation and sustainability have taken centre stage, we are steadfastly progressing on our purpose-led and future-fit journey.

Our history

90 years of doing well by doing good

It was 1888 when Calcutta harbour received a consignment of crates of 'Sunlight', which marked the beginning of India's largest FMCG company's journey.

On 17th October, 1933, the Company was incorporated in India and has travelled the past nine decades alongside the country, working towards creating a better future every day, helping people look good, feel good, and get more out of life.

1930s

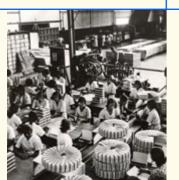

Lever Brothers India Limited incorporated in India — established its first soap factory in Sewri, Bombay.

Calcutta, and Madras.

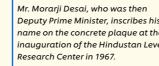

Mr. Morarii Desai, who was then Deputy Prime Minister, inscribes his name on the concrete plaque at the inauguration of the Hindustan Lever

1950s

Lever Brothers India Limited, Hindustan Vanaspati Manufacturing Company Limited, and United Traders Limited merged in 1956 to form Hindustan Lever Limited (HLL), with 10% Indian equity participation. The issue was oversubscribed nearly six times, and 21,623 Indians came to own a part of the then Hindustan Lever Limited.

1960s

India's first research centre in FMCG industry opened in Mumbai in 1967.

1970s

The Integrated Rural Development programme began in Etah, Uttar Pradesh, with five villages. It grew to cover over 200 villages within 10 years.

A home for the destitute inaugurated in Byculla, Mumbai along with the Missionaries of Charity, aptly named Asha Daan, a Gift of Hope.

1990s

Tata Oil Mills Limited merged with HLL, in the largest M&A in Indian corporate history at the time in 1994.

Brooke Bond Lipton India Limited merged with HLL in 1996.

Lakme Lever Private Limited was formed in 1996.

2000s

With the goal of improving hygiene, fighting disease, and generating income for rural women, Project Shakti launched as a pilot in Andhra Pradesh.

The Company's name was changed to Hindustan Unilever Limited (HUL) retaining continued commitment towards its local roots while leveraging the global scale and reputation of Unilever.

2010s

HUL embraced the Unilever Sustainable Living Plan (USLP) — committing towards sustainable growth and time-bound targets aimed at positively impacting society and environment.

Hindustan Unilever Foundation (HUF) set-up to support national priorities for socio-economic development by addressing water challenges.

Project 'Prabhat' launched to engage with and contribute to the development of local communities around our manufacturing sites.

The 'Winning in Many Indias' (WiMI) operating framework launched. Three new sales offices setup in Lucknow, Indore, and Bengaluru in addition to the existing sales offices in Delhi, Kolkata, Mumbai, and Chennai.

Re-Imagine HUL launched with an aim to leverage data, harness latest technologies, and emerging business models in order to redefine how HUL engages with consumers, customers, and the way the business operates.

GSK Consumer Healthcare merged with HUL marking the largest M&A deal in Indian FMCG industry. Iconic health food drink brands — Horlicks and Boost became part of HUL's portfolio.

New Compass strategy was announced that fully integrated sustainability across our business operations. At the heart of Compass is our purpose to make sustainable living commonplace.
